Panther Honors Two Who Care

Within the ranks of today's teaching profession, there is a growing number of educators who believe that learning is a total experience, encompassing much more than books and blackboards.

This year's PANTHER staff recognizes two teachers who exemplified this philosophy throughout the year.

A class with Mrs. Carmen Escobar, where song, dance, and the click of castanets were all part of the studies, was never dull.

Her presence at club meetings, football games, and "fiestas" was something students eagerly anticipated, as she brought her own brand of warmth and humor to each activity.

Mr. John Turner gained the admiration of Plant's entire student body as he made "The Band with the Golden Sound" truly number one.

This teacher showed that he cared through endless hours of planning and practice with his students.

Each evening last fall this soulful director could be found in Dads' Stadium choreographing intricate half-time routines.

His sincerity and concern for Plant High School made him a student favorite.

Staff Copes With Double Sessions

This year Principal Jack Marley led his administrative team through a series of unprecedented changes.

A double session school day kept our administration busy solving ever present problems.

Mr. Al Nelson, dean of boys, and Mrs. Anna Mae Whitehouse, dean of girls, optimistically undertook the jobs of maintaining discipline and enforcing new policies.

They were aided by Mr. Roland Acosta and Mrs. Thelma Shuman, our new assistant deans.

Mr. Larry Wagers, assistant principal in charge of activities, was faced with the problems of uniting two student bodies and involving them in school activities.

Mr. Robert Quierola worked with our faculty and students as assistant principal in charge of curriculum.

The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Evaluation Committee commended our administration for the job they performed this year at Plant.

Principal Jack Marley introduces head cheerleader Debbie Pazo to a pep rally audience.

A student talks out a problem with Mrs. Anna Mae Whitehouse, dean of girls.

Mrs. Thelma Shuman, assistant dean of girls, discusses scheduling with a concerned parent.

Mr. Quierola addresses the sophomore class.

Mr. Nelson and Mr. Penholster look in on a rally.

Answering a parent's question, Larry Wagers pauses from his busy schedule.

*will always be one of my favorite people - best wishes always -

Changes Met by Versatile Team

Students this year found many new faces among Plant's teaching staff. Because of double sessions many new teachers came to Plant, while several of last year's teachers were transferred to other schools.

Learning went on from seven in the morning until five in the afternoon, with two shifts of teachers handling this difficult job.

Morning teachers had to compete with stunning sunrises for the students' attention.

In the afternoon, band practices and football games were tough competition for this tireless group.

Crowded classrooms were a problem for Plant's faculty to cope with.

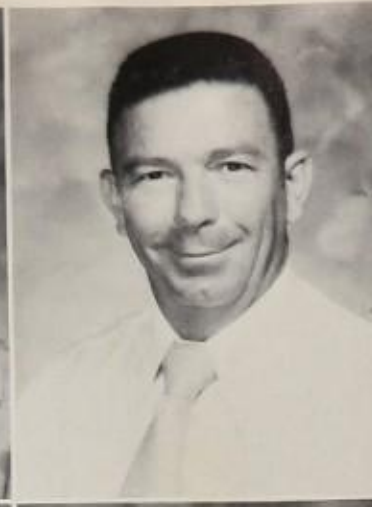

The need for expanding the school's classroom facilities was evident and many classes were conducted in portable units on the campus.

Students Offered More Courses

Each of the departments in the "Essentials" category saw many changes during this year.

The rescheduling of Plant's school day meant a restructuring of each section's format.

In the math department students, this year, were given a unique learning opportunity.

Plant obtained a computer which was able to solve all types of mathematical problems.

Many students became very proficient in computer programming.

In the English department there were many courses offered besides those required for graduation.

Creative writing, drama, speech, and a course in the humanities were popular with students.

The history department expanded its program to include such diverse subjects as anthropology, philosophy, Black history, and psychology.

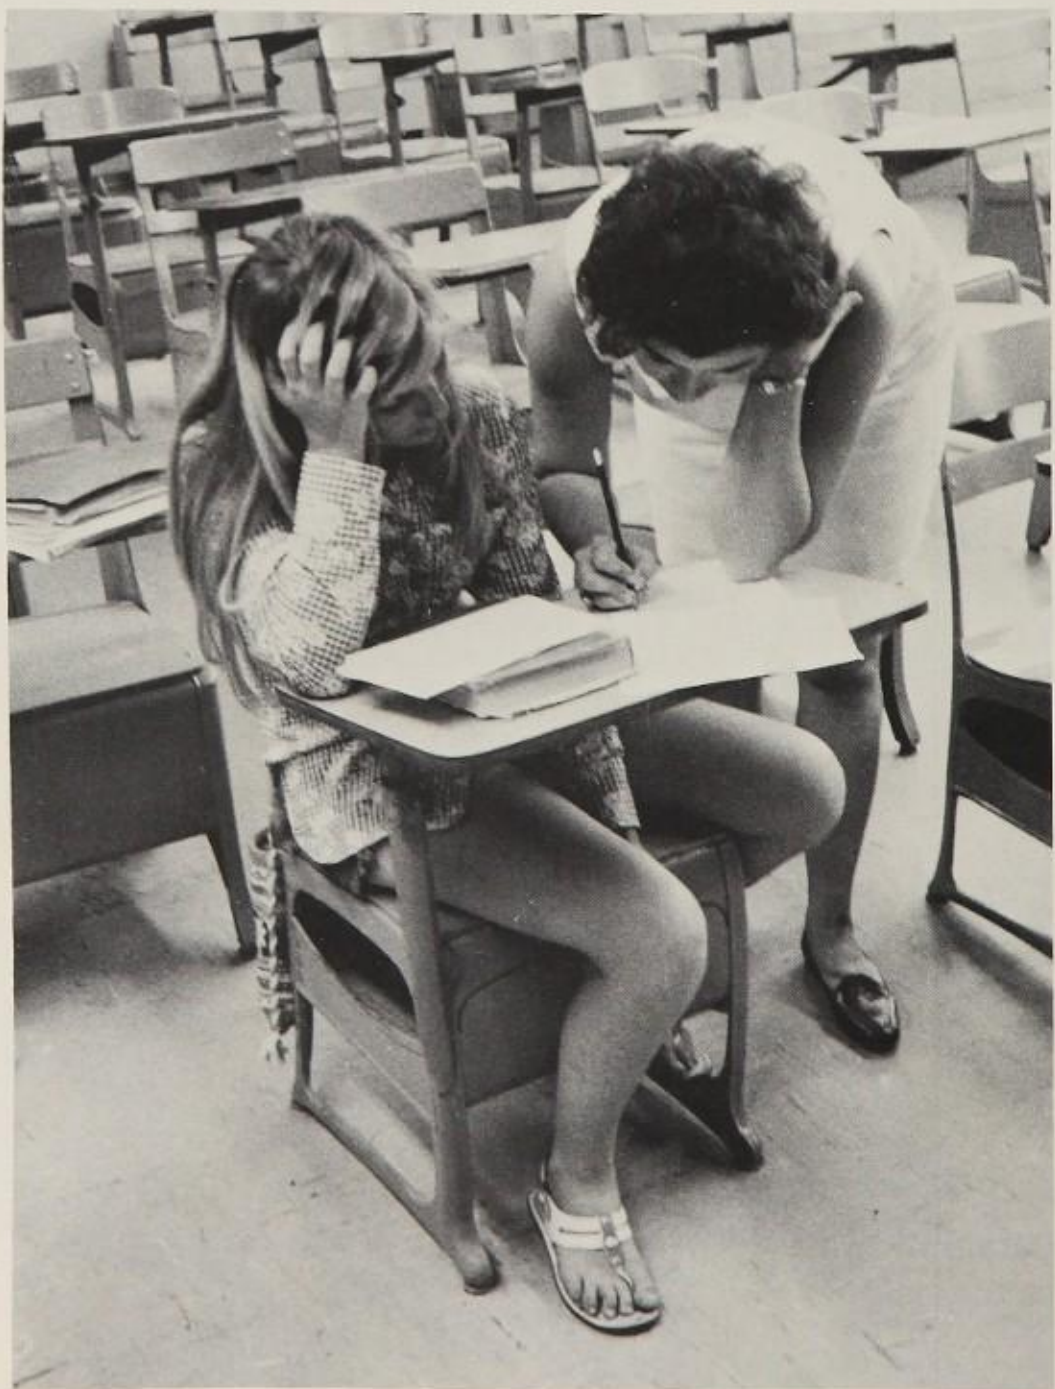

Science offerings grew in number as more and more students enrolled in such relevant courses as Ecology and Marine biology.

It was an exciting year for Plant's library staff as they prepared to move into their new facilities.

Construction began this spring on the new library, which will house 18,000 volumes.

Mr. Conrad lends an approving glance to Debbie Fonte's geometry assignment.

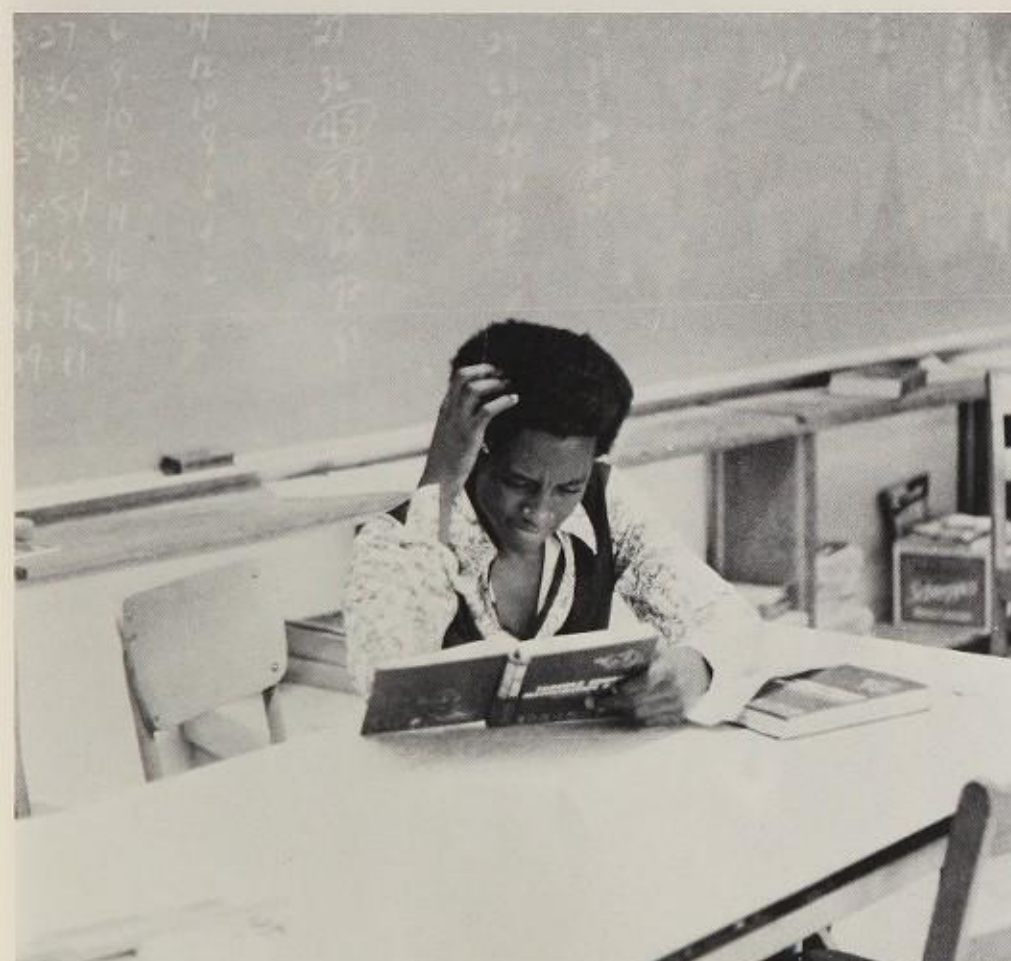

Joanie Herdon receives assistance on her math homework from Miss Eason.

Double sessions give Plant an abundance of sleepy students.

Mrs. Ware's, P.E. classes exert their youthful energy wisely.

William Weston, concentrates deeply on confusing mathematics problems in his sophomore pre-algebra class.

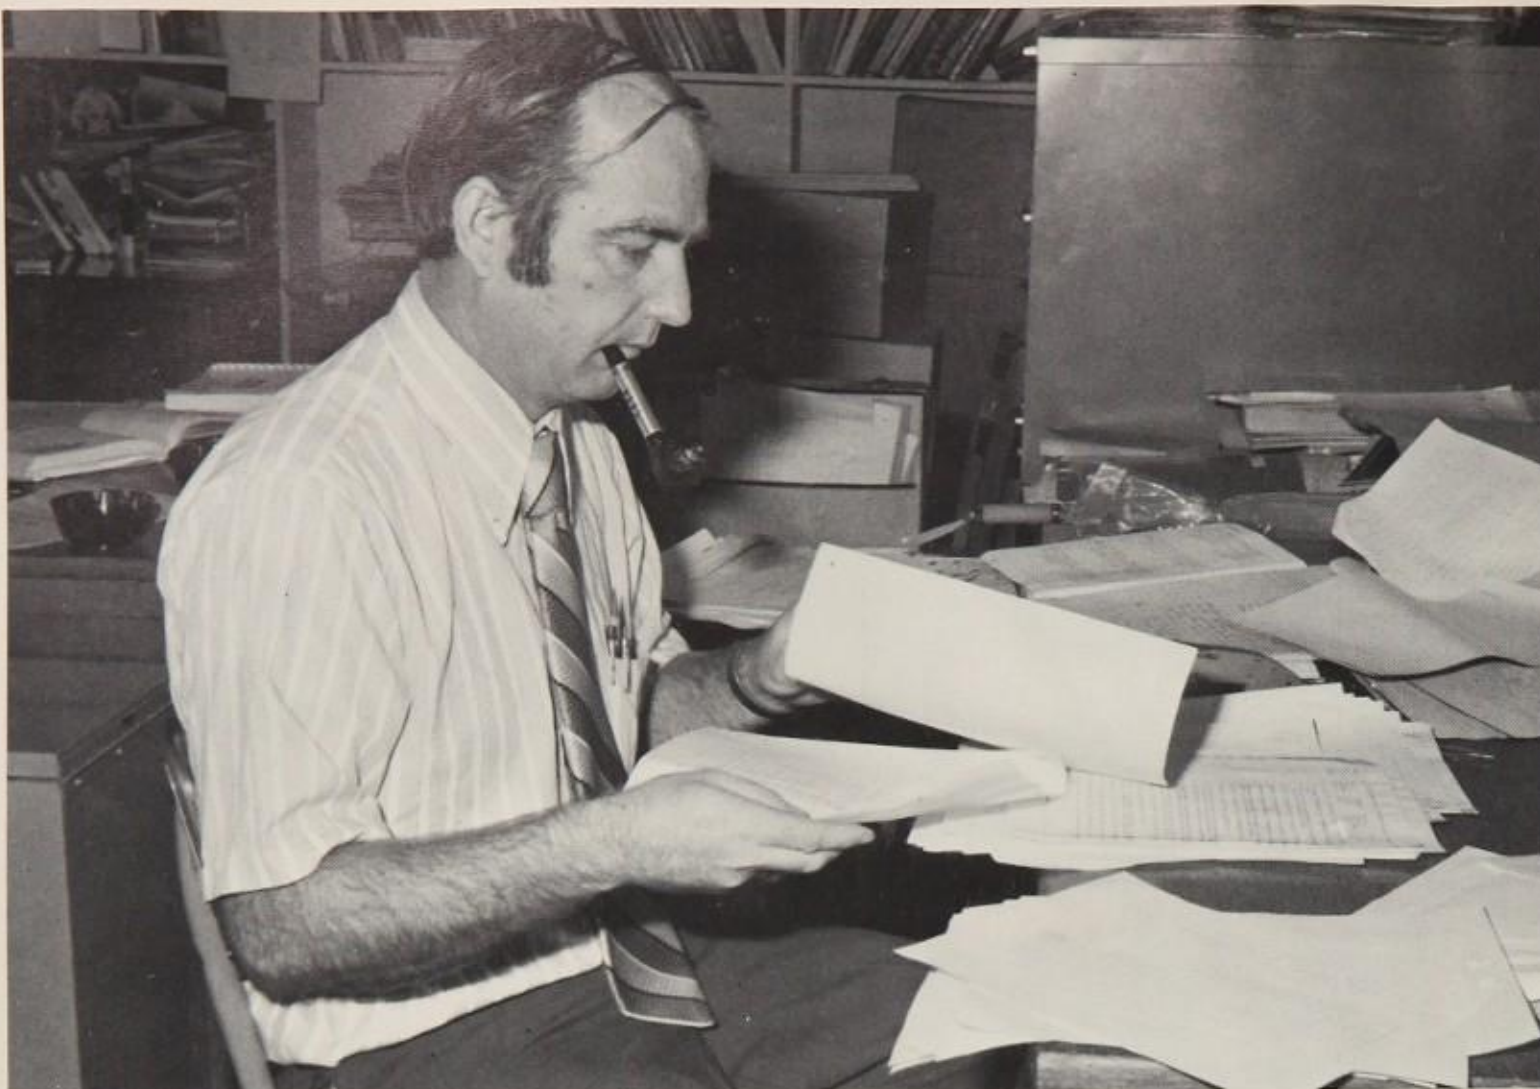

Mrs. Brahier, Plant's library secretary, works diligently to complete forms.

Sitting at a well organized desk, Mrs. Coleman, checks daily planning schedule.

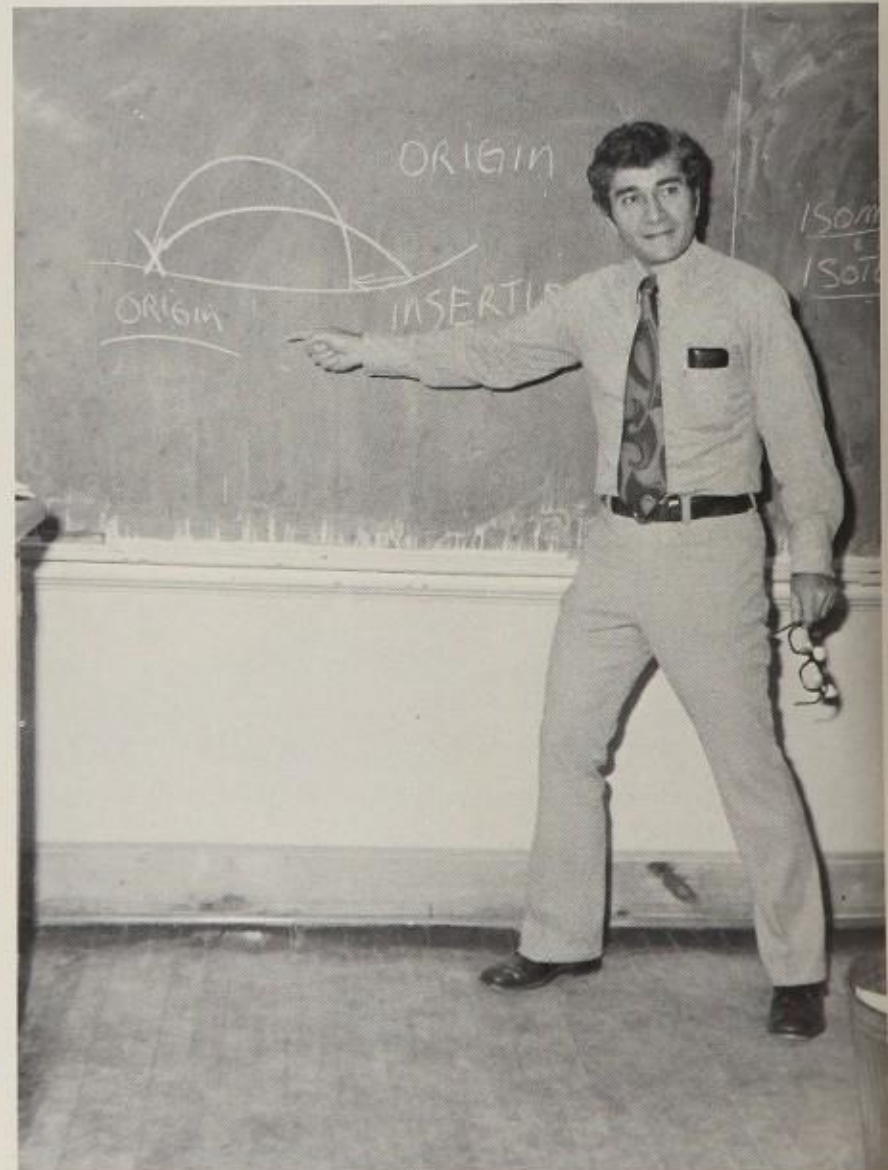

*Fredie,
 It's really
 been fun knowing
 you. I really enjoyed
 having in Library last year

 Mrs. V. Brahier*

While leisurely smoking his pipe, Mr. Tyler arranges test papers for his social studies classes.

The overhead projector is very useful in Mrs. Ferguson's math classes.

Physiological terms are actively explained by Mr. Martinez.

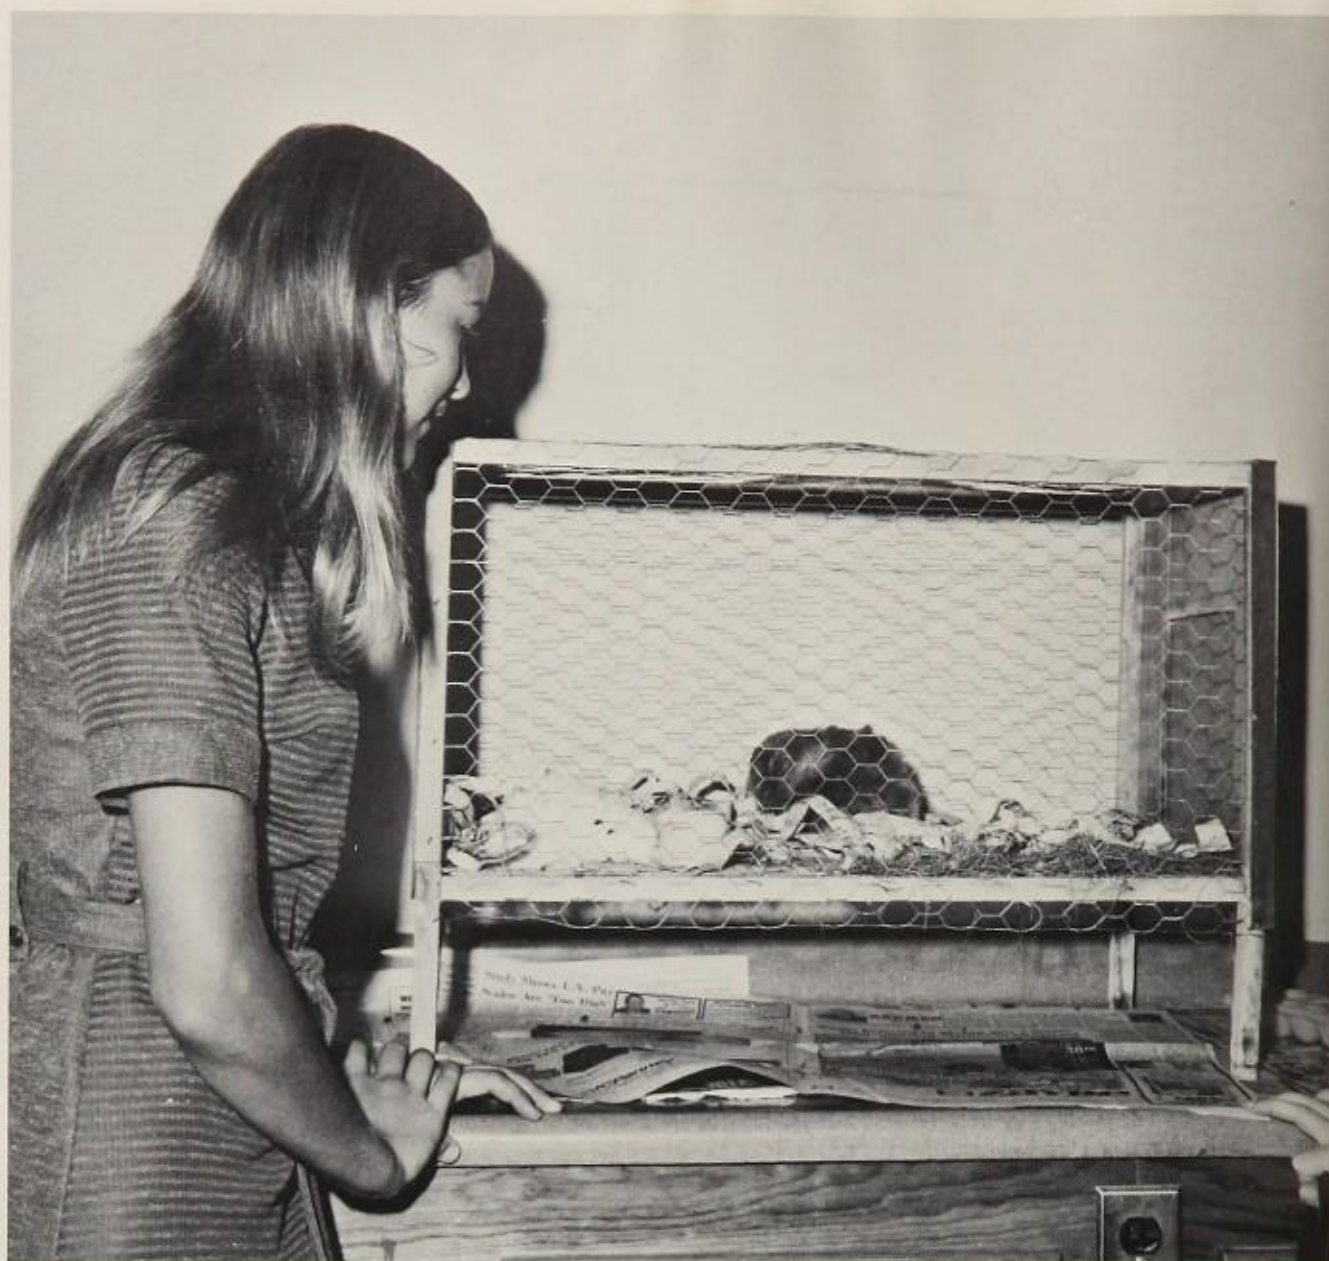

Daily practice improves archery skills in Boys P.E.

Mrs. Stern's class, reviews for an important physiology test.

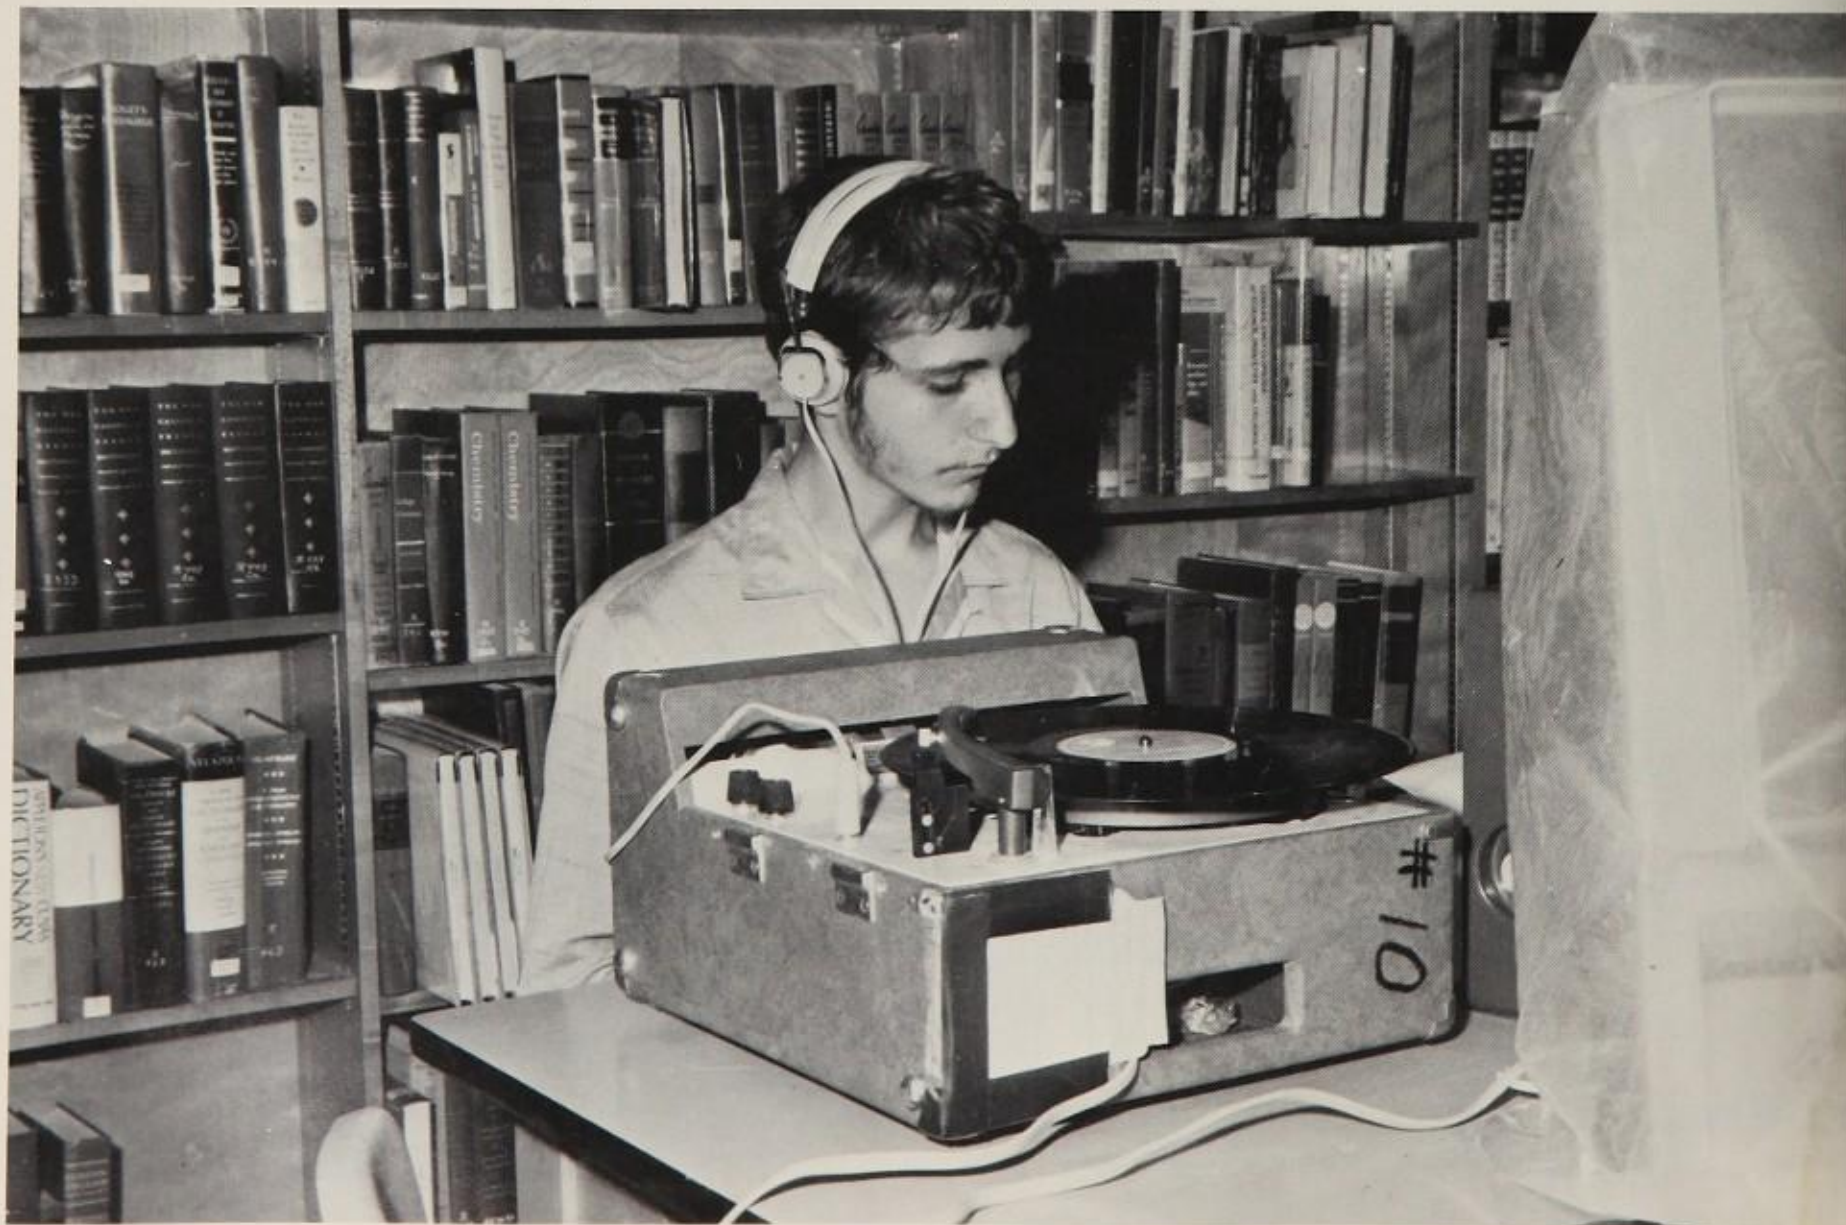

Mrs. Kelly explains slide preparation and the correct way to use a microscope.

Hamsters, which are used for experimental purposes are observed by a student.

The library facilities include audio-visual equipment. A.V. students check this equipment regularly.

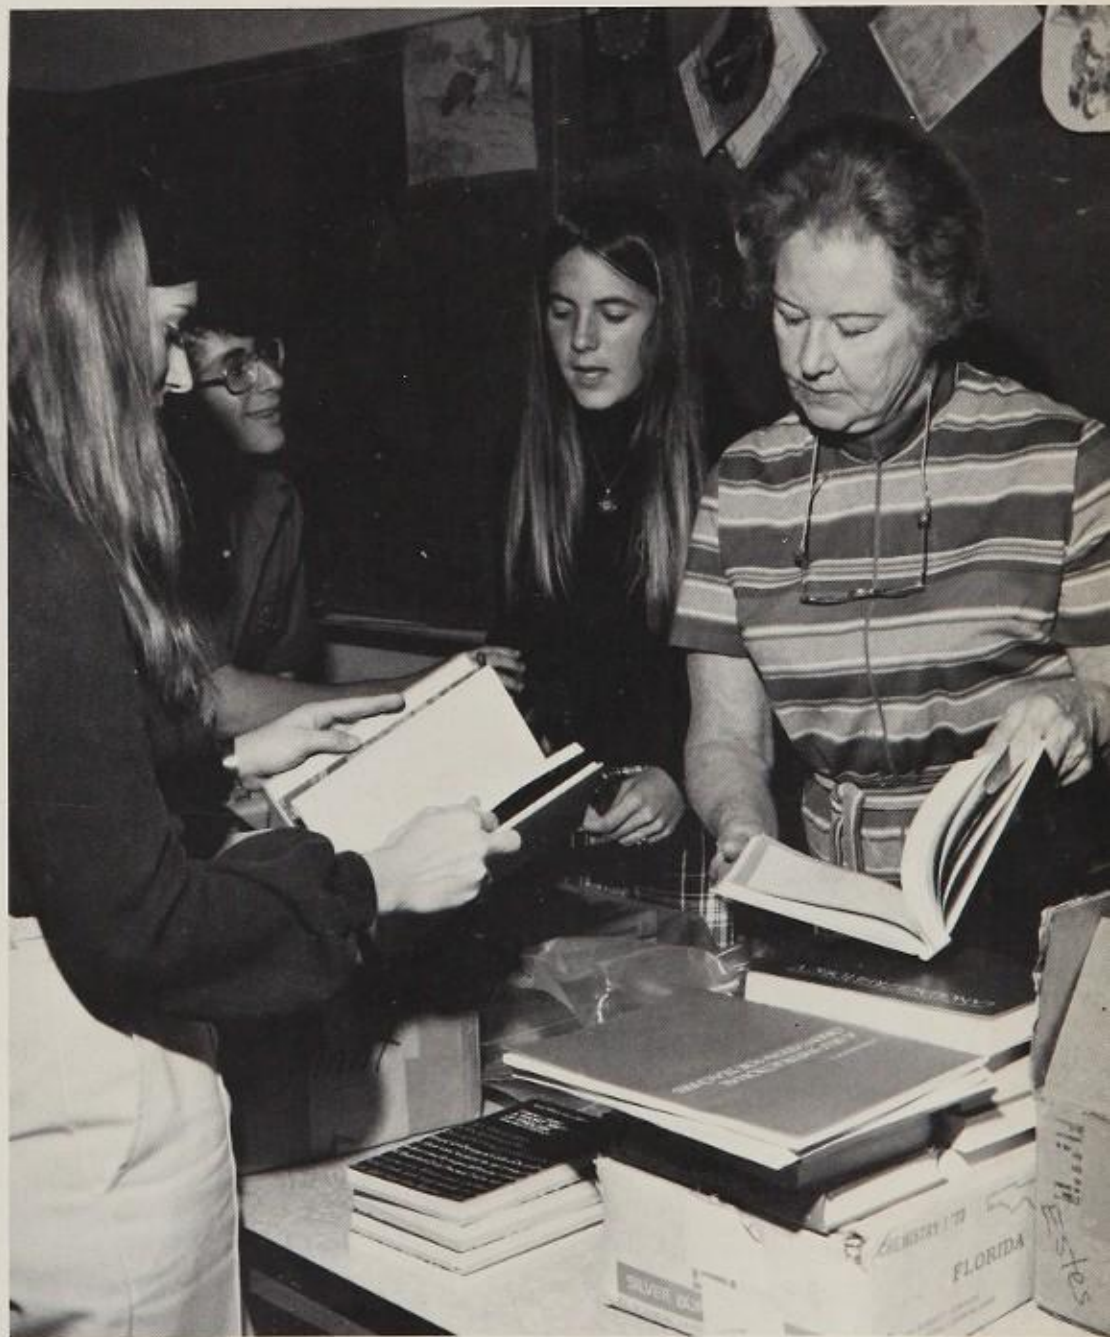

Mrs. Woroby exhibits mutual feelings towards talkative students.

Study sheets, for tests are given to Mrs. Lamperts' history classes.

Mrs. Estes and EA3 students browse through newly acquired literature.

Showcases Student Talents

This year, Plant's cultural courses offered an outlet for students' talents.

Art classes explored new techniques in one of man's oldest forms of self-expression.

Drama classes examined the history of the theater and read several recent plays.

The chorus, under the direction of Mr. John Augenblick, practiced numerous hours in school as well as out.

The chorus competed in many state-wide competitions. Spanish, French, German, and Latin were the languages taught.

These classes broadened the students outlook on the world around them.

Music played an important part in cultural courses.

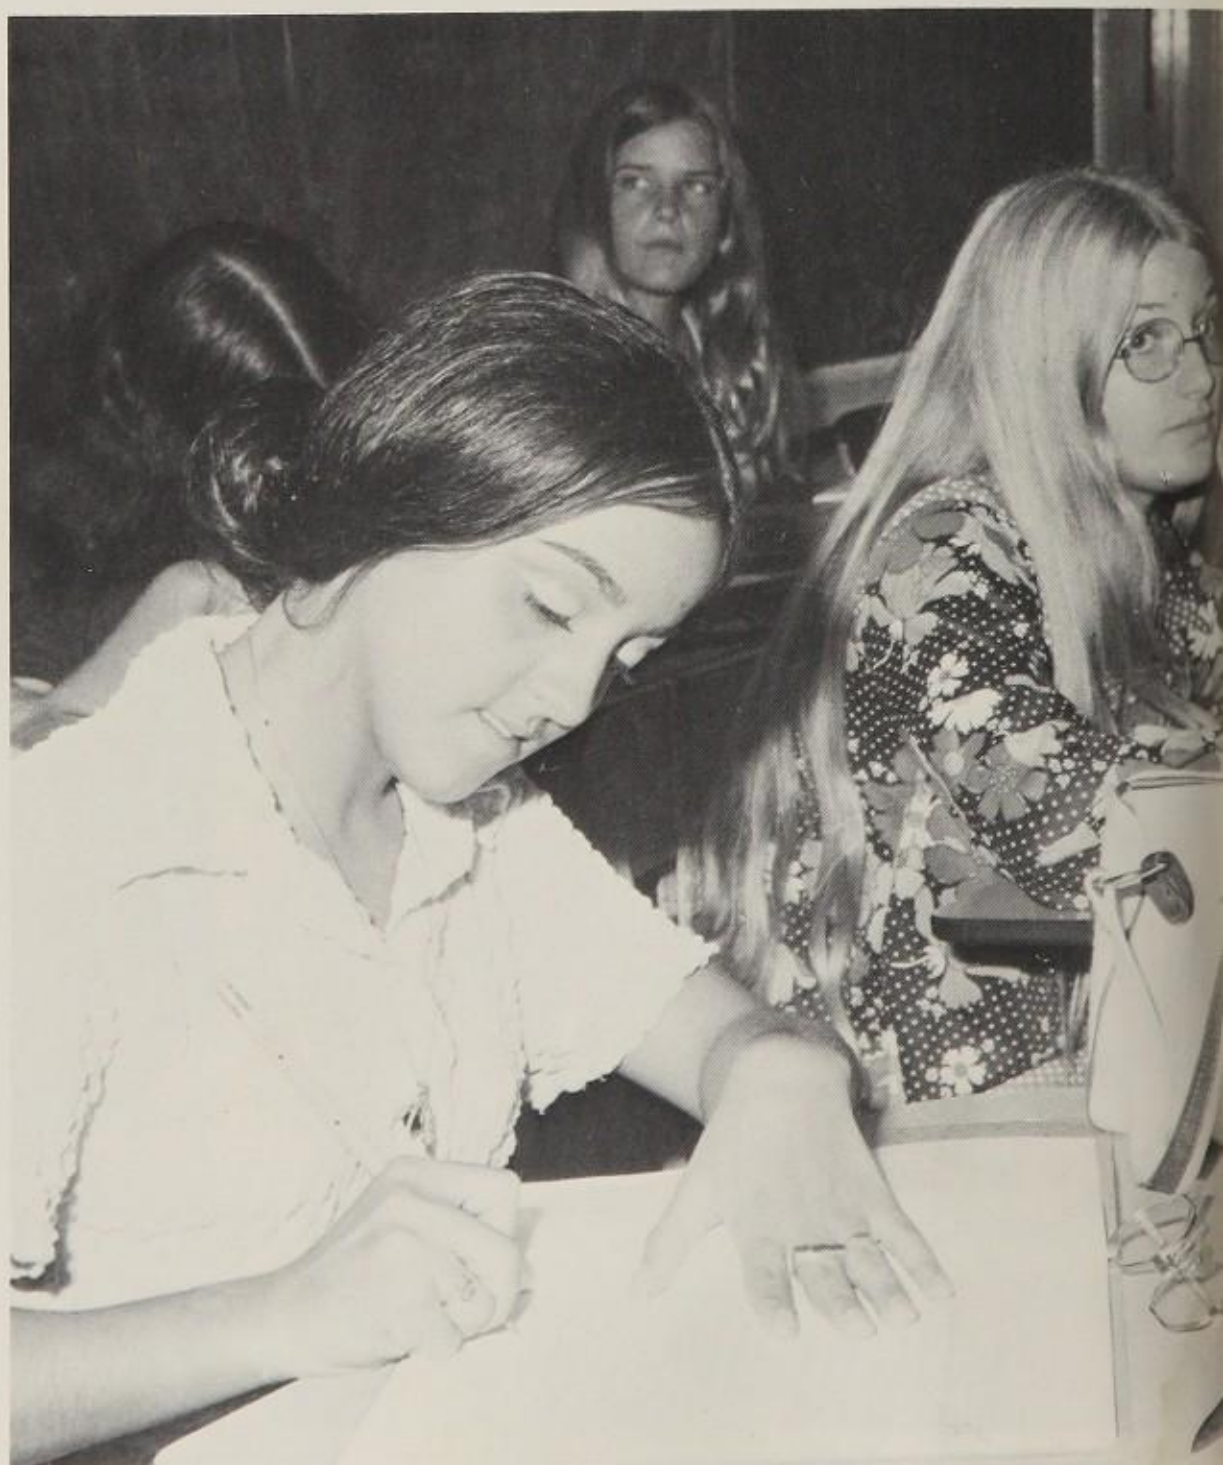

More bands were formed such as the stage, lab, and classical bands, all under the direction of the very talented Mr. John Turner.

Courses such as music appreciation and music theory were very popular this year with those students interested in a serious study of music.

Because of broadened course offerings, enrollment in Plant's cultural courses was very high this year.

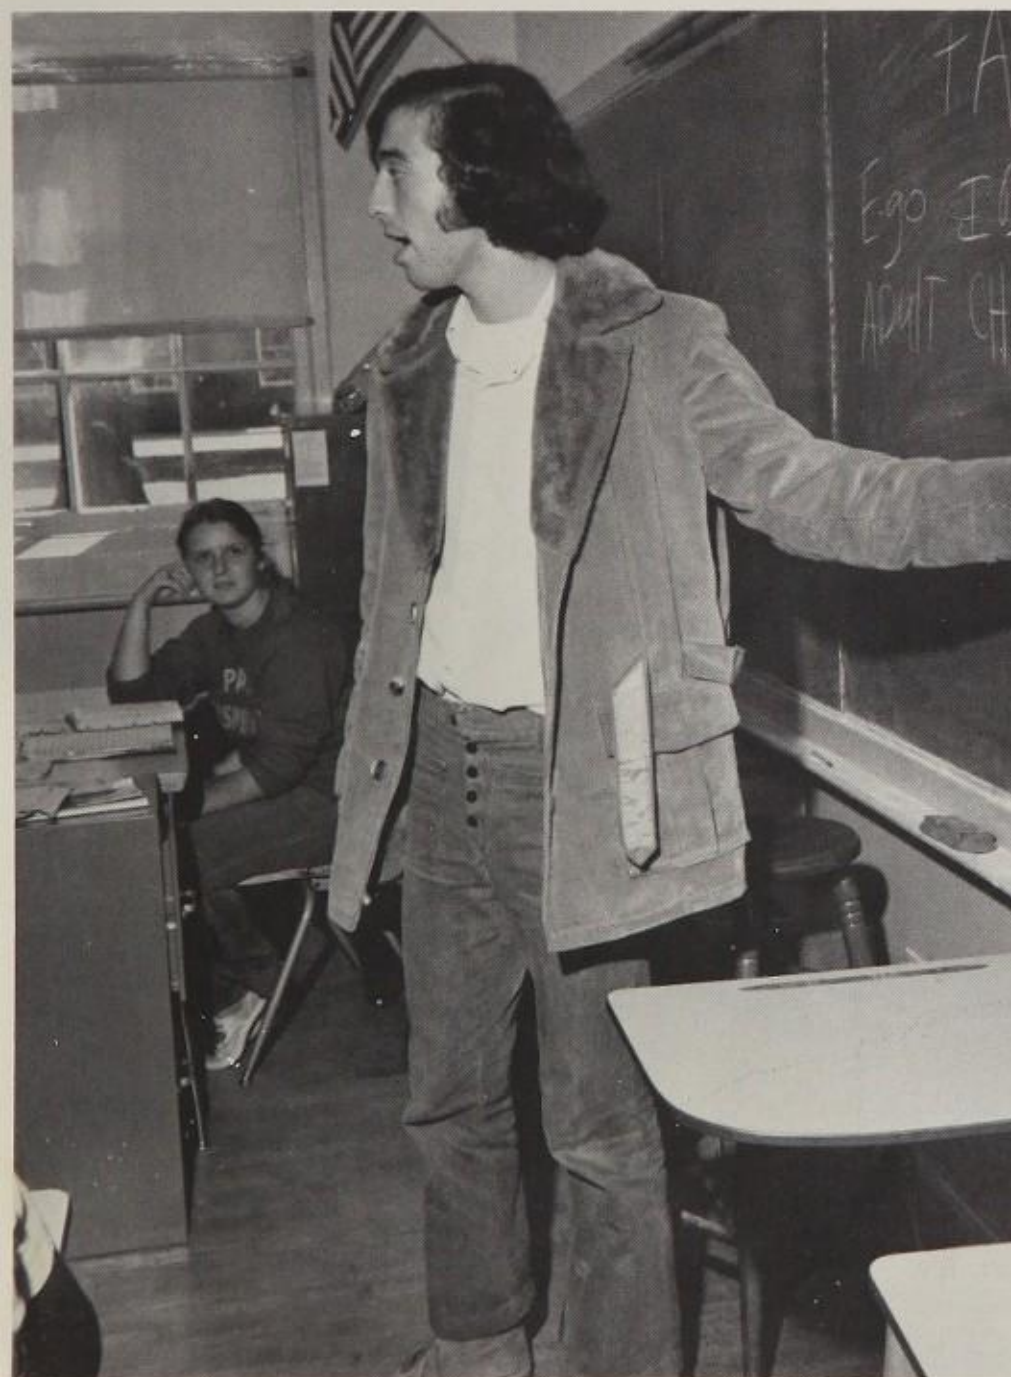

Sandy Weatherall and Norma Randolph create original pencil sketchings.

A language student translates one of her favorite stories into English.

The unique art room is a place to display talent, taste, and creativity.

Pupil Reed Heller teaches a Latin class.

The band rehearses for an upcoming performance.

Mrs. Abercrombie's talented drama class practices new stage technique and exercises to enhance their performance.

Mrs. Escobar shows her class a piñata, an old Spanish custom.

Two art students give their decopage art work a final coat of shellac.

Mrs. Hinchee returned to Plant this year after a year's absence.

Mrs. Fisher and Mr. Dayan discuss language department policies.

An advanced art student displays her dexterity with water colors in an interesting picture.

Practical Courses Gain Popularity

Plant's practical courses increased in student popularity.

More and more students were seen enrolling in business courses such as typing, shorthand, business math and business English.

At the same time, student enrollment increased in various shop, drafting and other industrial arts classes.

Drivers Education became a required prerequisite for students under eighteen wishing to secure a drivers license.

An increasing number of boys enrolled in Home Economic courses, which prepared them for life away from home.

Modern Family Living, was an interesting course which prepared students for married, family life.

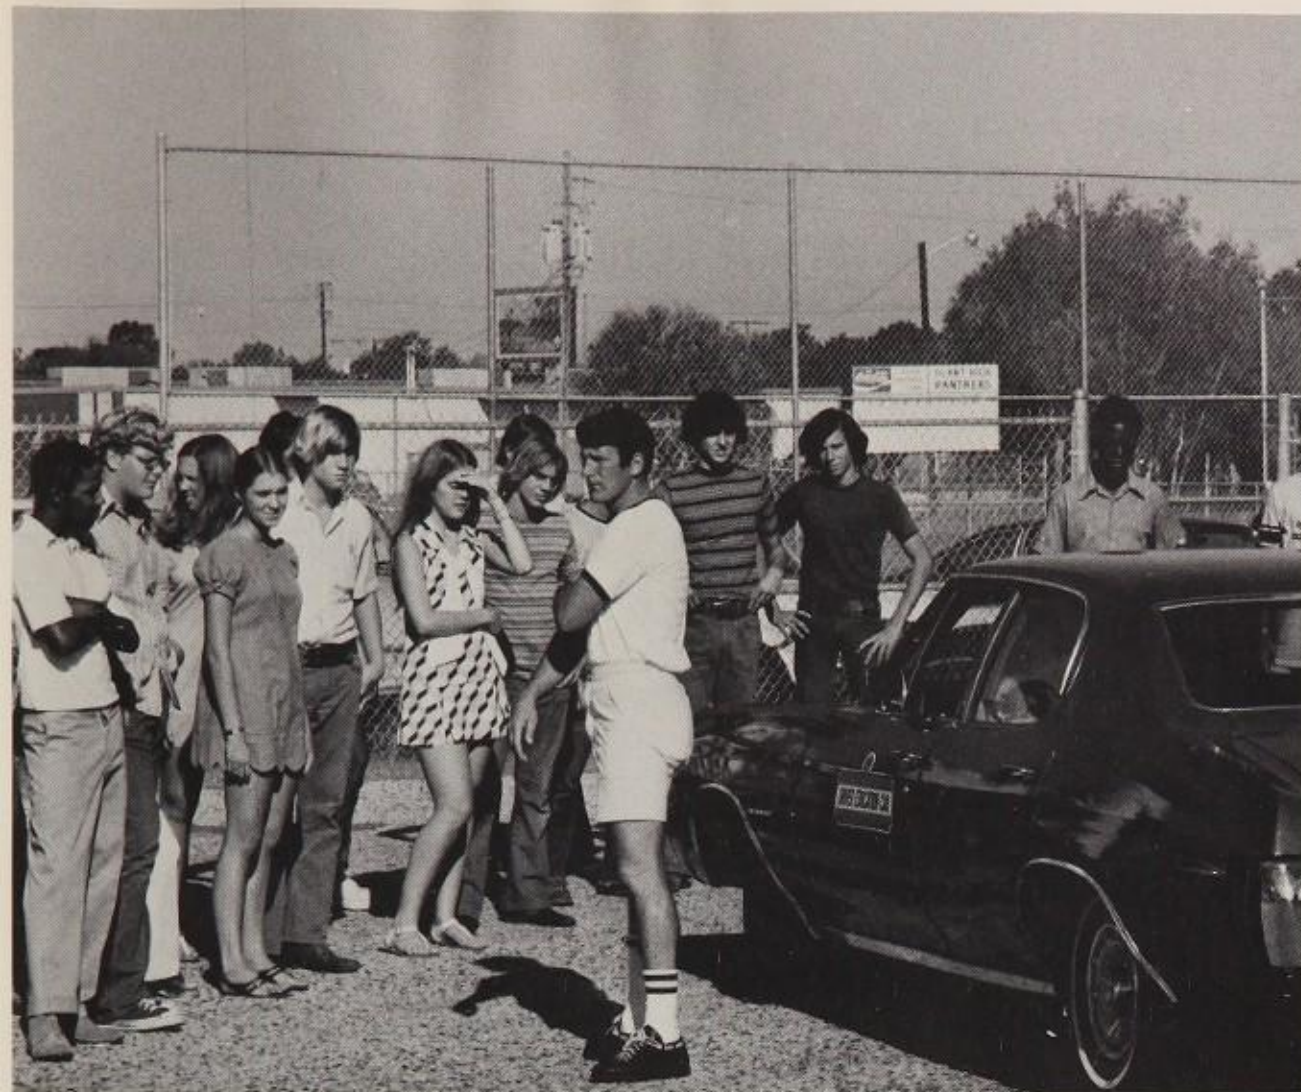

Double sessions made DCT students happier with more time for both classes and part-time jobs during school hours and after school.

Mrs. Silas teaches two of her Home Economics students the procedures for baking a cake.

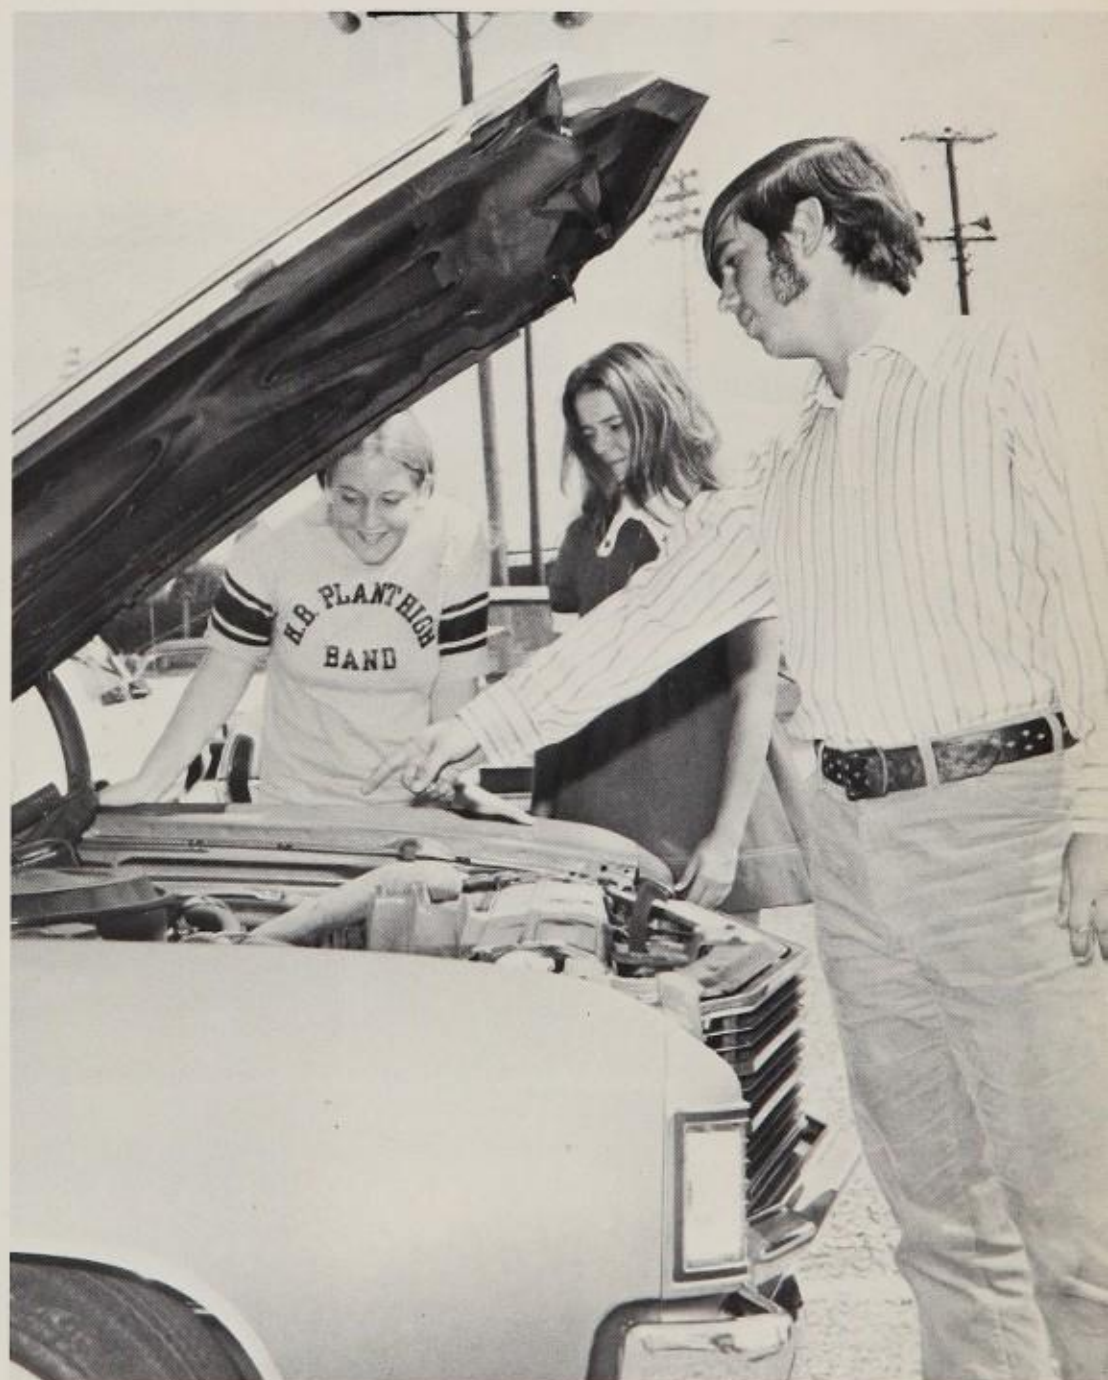

Debra Grady practices advanced typing techniques in a morning class.

A diligent shop student stays after class to finish his project.

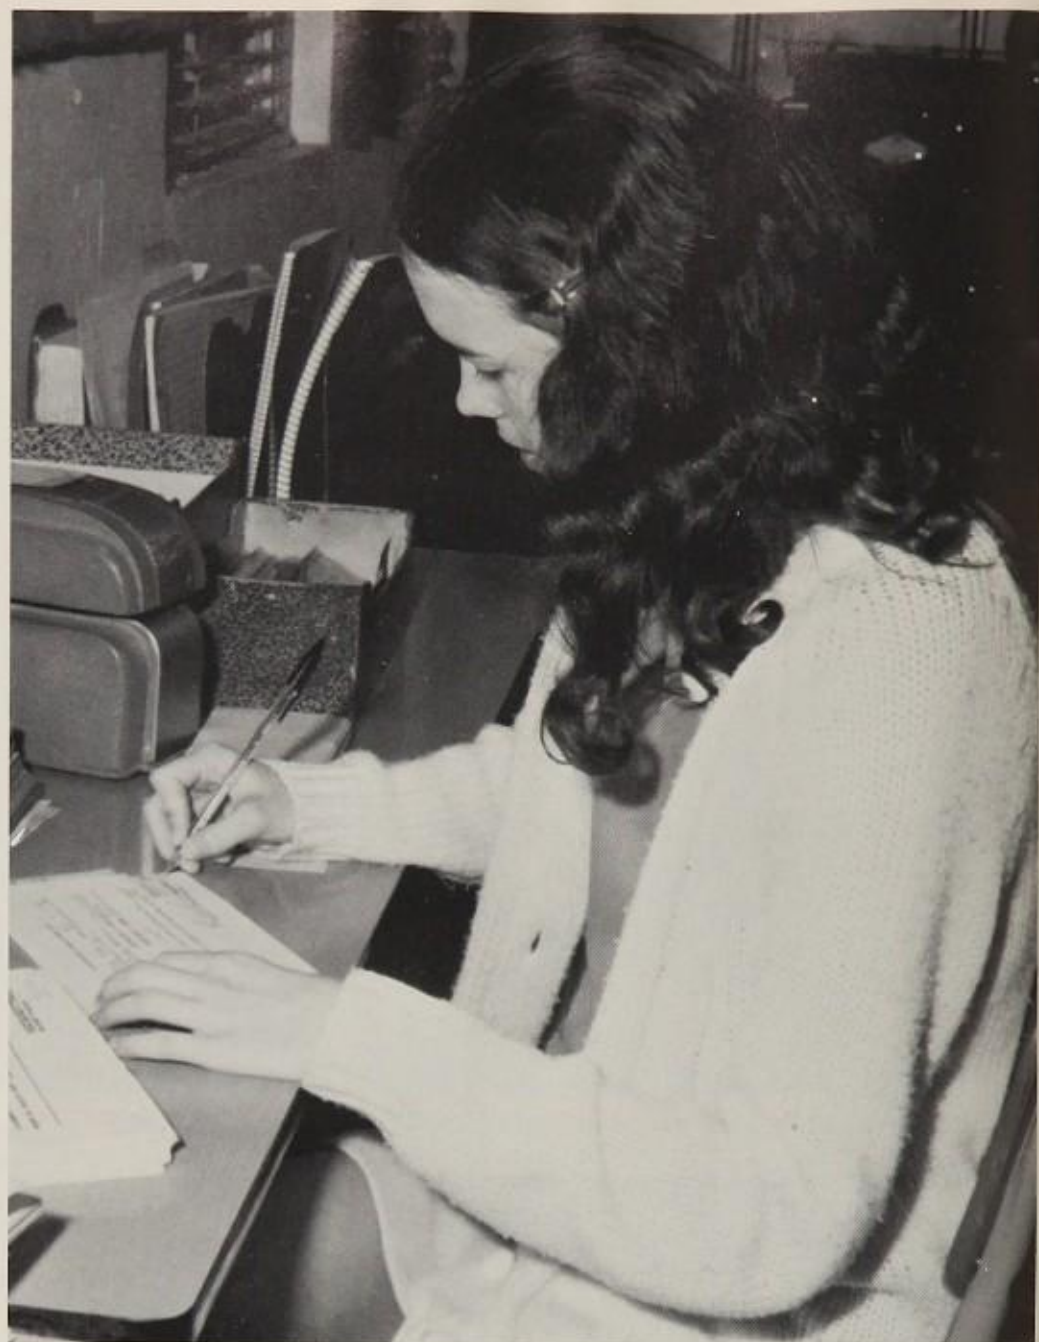

"... and this is the engine," explains a patient fellow student.

Counselors Aid in Future Plans

Giving seniors information for colleges, scholarships, and vocational training was one of the major tasks the guidance department undertook this year. Underclass students received scheduling information as well as information on the courses needed for graduation and future studies.

Many Plant students consulted their counselors when problems such as grades, teachers, and fellow students arose. Under the direction of Mr. Ernest Zeman the guidance staff grew in number.

A welcome addition was Mr. Chris Pinholster who specialized in vocational training and future careers.

Susan Dodd, a guidance assistant, fills out an appointment slip.

Mr. Ernest Zeman, head counselor, discusses career plans with an interested student.

Sandy Quedno and Debbie Fonte look up the entrance requirements of their favorite colleges.

Mrs. Battle post new college information.

Mrs. Wingert writes a letter of recommendation for a student.

Custodians Put In Long Hours

Double sessions changed the schedules of both the lunchroom and janitorial teams.

The lunchroom staff decreased in numbers and served a la carte and bag lunch menu.

A popular addition was an orange slushee machine.

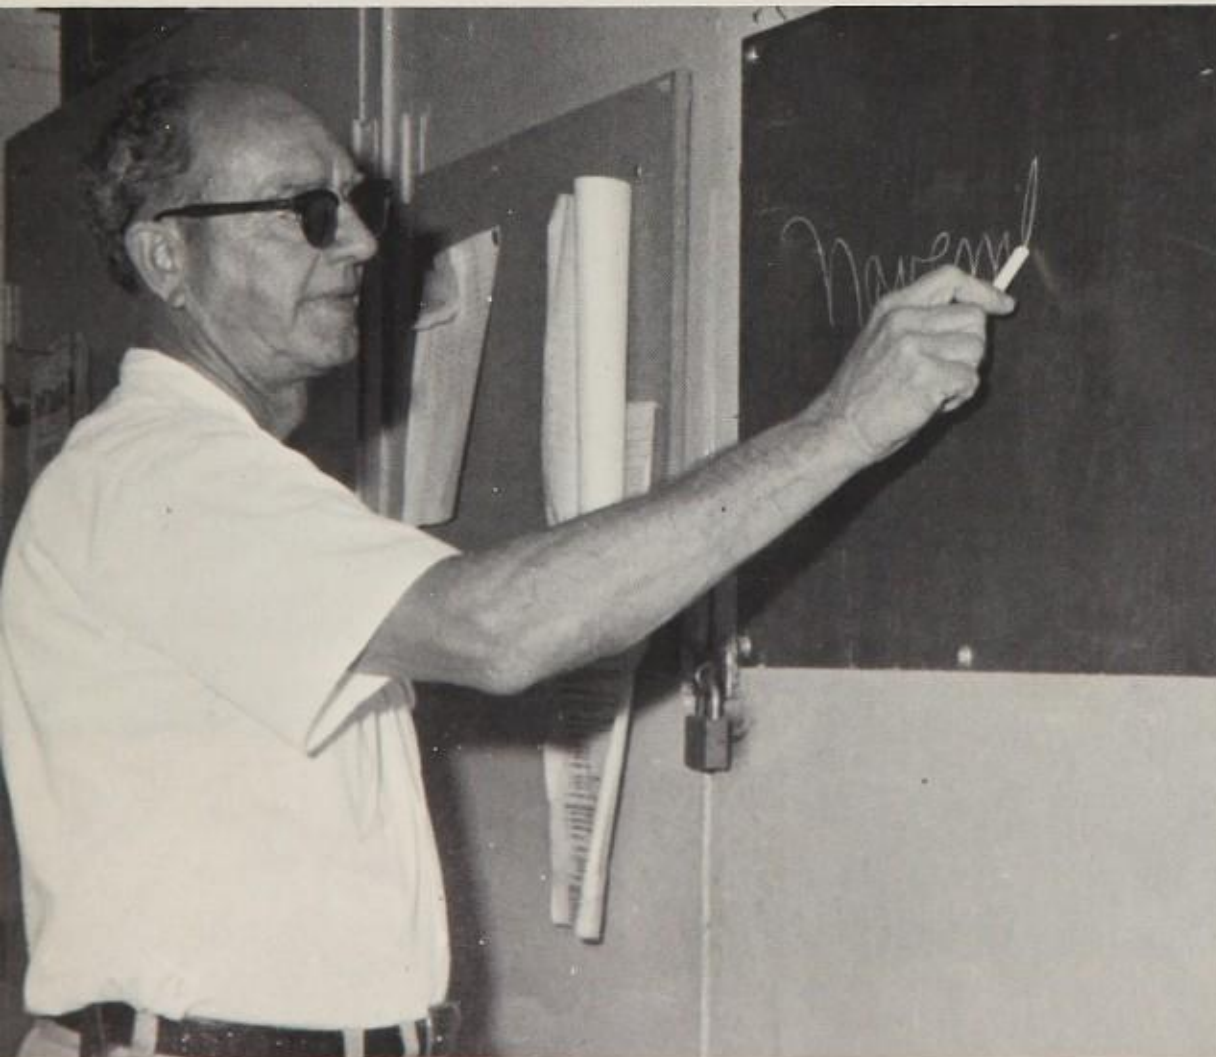

The custodians put in longer hours this year cleaning the campus long after everyone had gone home.

These men and women showed a pride in their work which was reflected throughout the year.

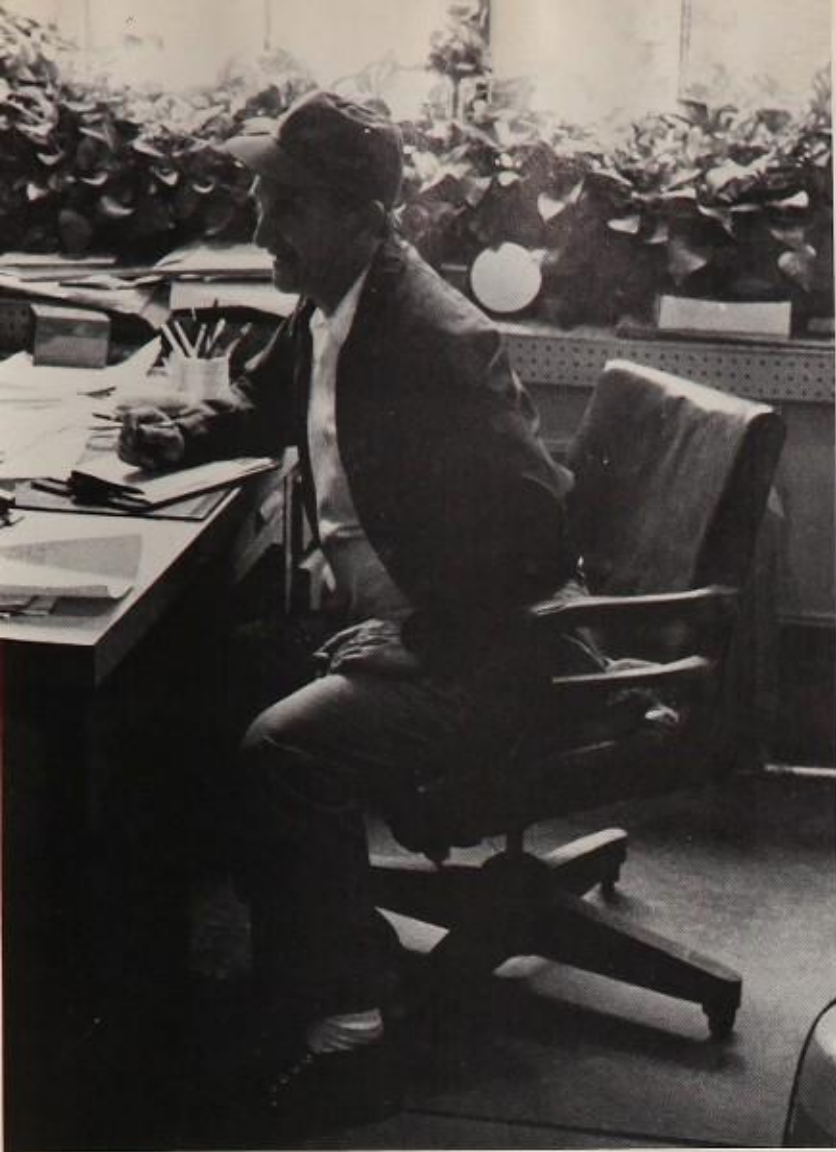

A lunchroom worker counts her daily receipts.

Mr. March writes the daily announcements for his staff to read.

One of Rosary Lopez's many jobs.

Tony Pedero writes out his work schedule for the day.

Miss Olivares cleans a dirty lunchroom table for the next group of students.

Mrs. Monteleone busily prepares a delicious bag lunch for a bus student.

Mr. Hernandez mops the floor at the end of a day.

Parents Assume Important Role

With educational developments in the headlines daily, more and more parents began taking an active role in school affairs.

This interest was seen in the large Plant delegations which attended each county school board meeting.

While Plant parents kept tabs on county developments, they were also extremely busy within the halls of Plant.

This year the long established Plant Parent-Teacher Association took on a new look and a new name.

For the first time ever students were able to take an active role in this organization's work.

The name was changed to the Plant PTSA

as students joined parents and teachers in working for Plant.

Staffing the school infirmary and helping to obtain the lighted billboard in the main hall were two PTSA projects.

The Plant High Dad's Club took an increasingly active role in assisting Plants athletic programs.

These men were hard at work at every football and basketball game this year.

The funds they earned in their many activities helped pay for Plant's new athletic equipment.

These dads also earned money for the "Dave Harrelson Fund"

and sponsored their annual Christmas tree sale.

Spirit Livens Many Fans

Even though doubles sessions hampered a massive turnout, Panther spirit was at an all time high. The cheerleaders, danceros, majorettes and German band performed to fire-up the student body. Coach Ken Russell announced the co-captains for the game that night. Each co-captain gave a short pep talk and then fired the traditional cannon. As a group, the cheerleaders decided who has sparked the most spirit and presented the spirit award. The pep rally committee hosted skits to increase spirit.

Marching Panthers wait for students to get seated.

Rallies never fail to get students up and yelling for victory.

Coach Russell introduces this year's coaching staff, which led the team to a four and six season.

High kicks accent spirited pep rally routine.

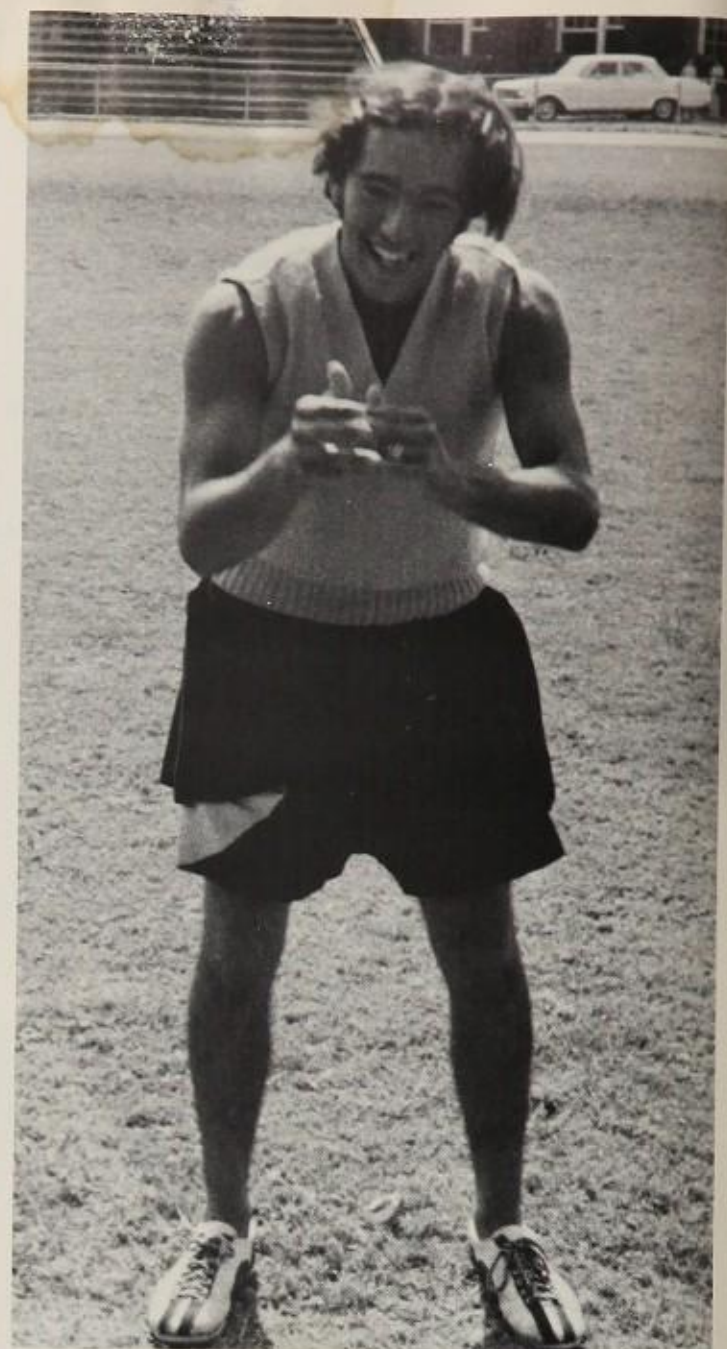

Team captains Terry Ely and Elliot Reeves fire up spirited crowd.

Mighty Panthers are introduced to fans during the Winter Haven pep rally.

Buddy Chastain and Stephan Athan make an offer the student body can't refuse.

Head cheerleader Andy Toledo sparks up some spirit.

Panther queen is rescued while the Panther fans cheer her on.

"Blue Eyes" Marley waits for an attentive audience.

Plant's fabulous band waits for their big performance in the Chamberlain pep rally.

Sally Sais displays her talents for the cheering crowd.

For the Sarasota game the skit depicted a sailor bar scene.

Fired-Up students return to their seventh period class following the Winter Haven pep assembly.

Ingenious Skits

Arouse Spirit

This year's Panther Prowl fired up lagging Panther spirit and helped lead the PHS team to a rousing Thanksgiving victory over the "Big Red."

Civinettes took first place in the competition with their musical parody of "Fiddler on the Roof."

Second place went to the Lionettes, while Civitans and La Sertoa tied for third.

The highlight of the evening came with Plant's parents in a hilarious PTSA production. The hard work, colorful sets, and ingenious performances made this year's celebration of Terrier defeat as event to remember.

"Tradition" becomes the cry of the Civinettes as their skit captures First place.

Panther Ellen Pasch attacks the invading Terriers.

Coach Russell congratulates the Pep Rally Committee for boosting school spirit.

PTSA tells "Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Football but..."

Kiwanettes swoon as Elvis turns Sexy Dog on.

Egor rocks out as Coach Jeanette Russell discovers Panther Potion No. 9.

Wicked Witch, Cathy Peek, plays her part well.

In La Sertoa's "Jungle Book" skit, Balu turns Boy's interest on the monkey.

Optimette cheerleaders spur Panthers on to victory.

"What!" A Panther on the roof?!

Dr. Heme O. Globin describes the Terrier invaders in the award-winning Civitan skit.

Here comes the Lionettes' fearless Terrier Patrol.

Mr. Turner happily accepts the spirit award given to the band.

The Fine Arts cast sings "Ding, Dong, the Witch is Dead" upon the scarecrow's discovery of her death.

Students Rally at Close of Season

Spirits soared as the 72-73 Panther football team rallied to prove once and for all that it is No. 1.

Much time and effort was spent in preparation for Turkey Day, which was the last game for this year's senior players. Once again, Optimettes sold the traditional mums while Lionettes sold tickets for the helium-filled balloons which made up the "big send-off."

The announcement of Panther Prowl's winning skit, produced by Civinettes, met with enthusiastic approval from the crowd. Even the varsity cheerleaders got into the act as they appeared dressed in brand new uniforms.

The final score, Plant-24, Hillsborough-0, told the whole story as the Panthers wrapped up the season with a final win.

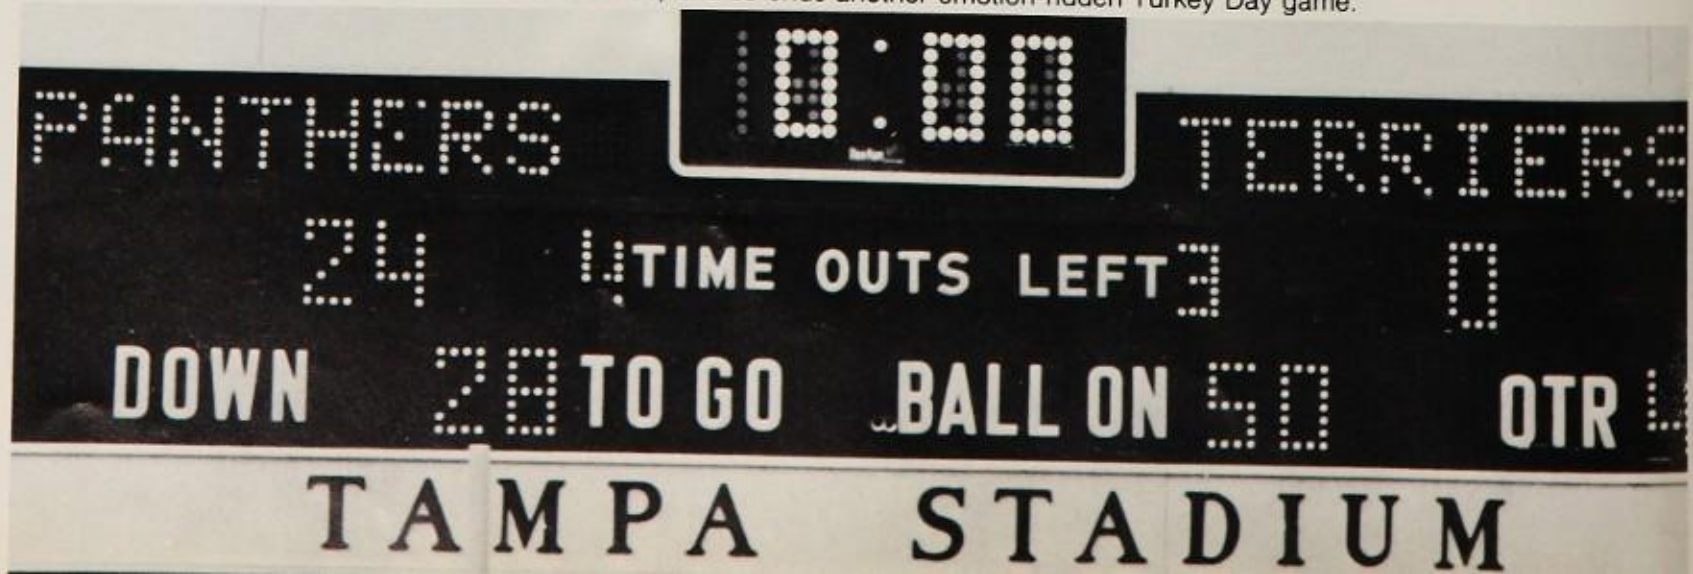

For the big send-off, Lionette members hand out balloons to anyone bearing a balloon ticket.

Spurred on by the cheerleaders, the might Panthers rip through the goal post banner.

Time runs out for the Terriers as the buzzer sounds, and so ends another emotion-ridden Turkey Day game.

Panther mascot, Kathy Browning, awaits the outcome of an extra point attempt.

Melvin Johnson, John Palmer, and Bill Johnson step lively.

Emotions run high as Plant makes the first touchdown of the game.

Band members execute a difficult step to "Get It On."

A sign of triumph is displayed as the winning skits of Panther Prowl are announced.

Pantherilla XLV Highlights Year

This Year's Pantherilla was the highlight of the 1973 school year.

The celebration took place on March seventeenth and was held at the new Egypt Temple Shrine.

The hall was decorated to the theme of "Everything Is Beautiful," and a student committee put in many hours of work designing the evening's elegant trappings. Brute Force a band from Baltimore, provided the evening's music. Plant's stage band also performed selections pertaining to the theme. The forty-fifth coronation of Pantherilla's King and Queen was a long awaited event. After the coronation students danced to the band's soulful beat.

The suspense is broken as Joni Herndon and John Dixon Wall announce this year's royalty.

Seniors Efforts Gain Honors

The 1972-73 Hall of Fame consists of five percent of the senior class. Scholarship, leadership, character, and service are the attributes which determine the faculty's choices. A 2.5 scholastic average and an overall "B" average in conduct are the requirements for eligibility. The students are selected prior to the end of first semester, however the selections are not acknowledged until the annual assembly in May. The principal, Mr. Jack Marley proudly presents these outstanding seniors to the student body.

Panthers

Start Slow

Facing a tough season, the 1972 Panthers ended with a 4-6 record.

Their first game was a disheartening 14-0 loss to arch-rival Robinson, which seemed to forecast the rest of the season.

Traveling to Sarasota, the Panthers had to rely on a tough defense to come up with a fourth quarter safety to down the Sailors, 18-17. Appearing in Dad's Stadium for the first time, the offense got rolling, but they didn't roll enough as the Winter Haven Blue Devils pulled out a thriller, 24-21.

In their fourth game the Panther defense proved to be one of the toughest, holding Brandon to just 3 points; the offense, however, couldn't score as the Panthers lost 3-0.

In hopes of upsetting the King Lions the Panthers got bad breaks all night and went home with a disappointing 13-8 loss.

Speedy halfback Pete Hershock (22) follows behind the blocking of quarterback Bill Kynes (11).

Junior running back sensation Billy Howard (33) hits top speed around end for valuable yardage.

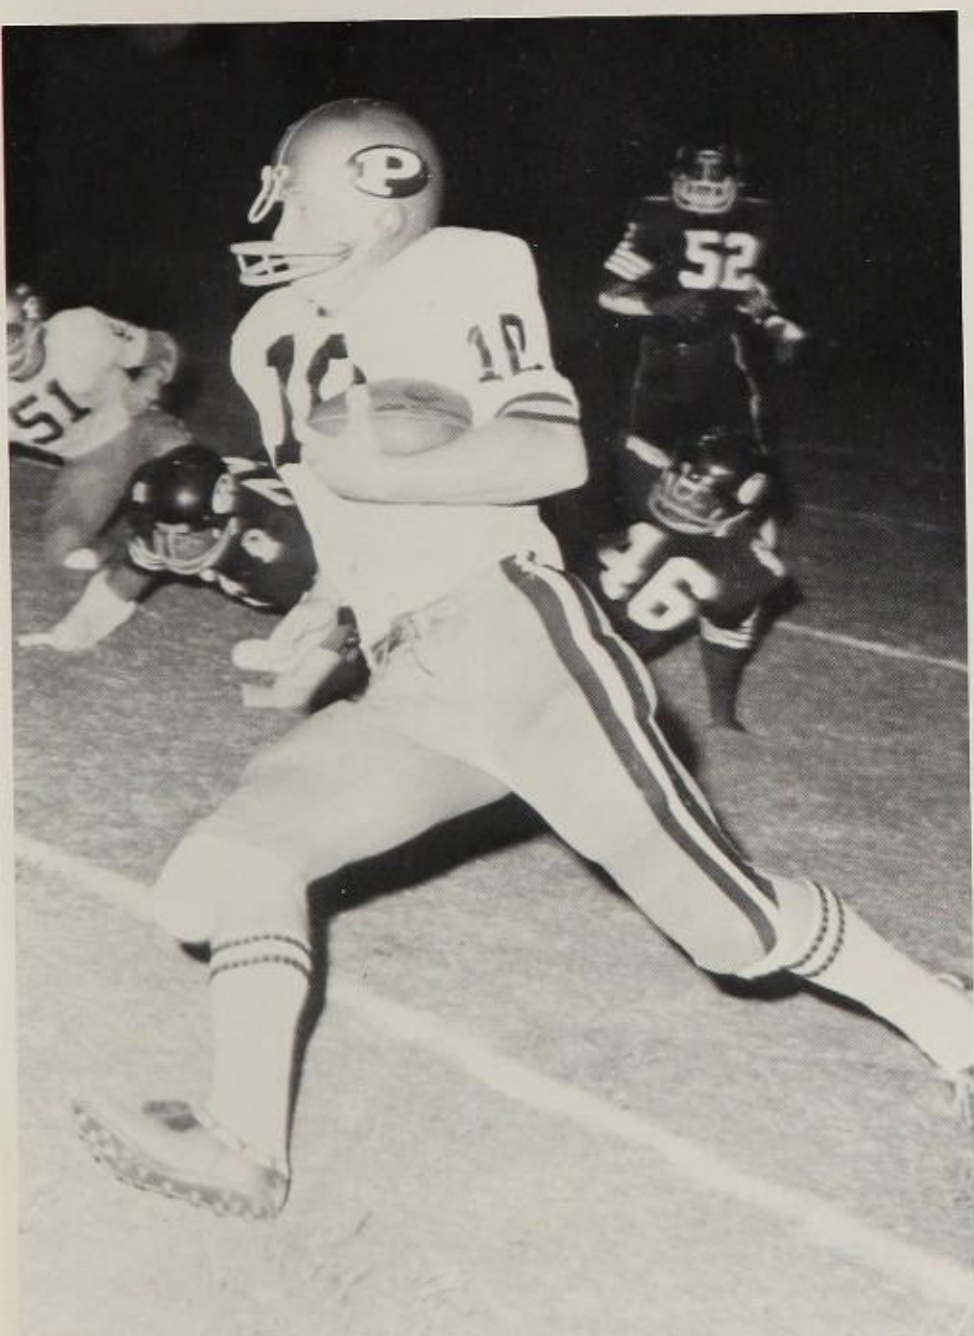

Junior quarterback Bill Kynes (11) looks for an open receiver downfield.

Senior offensive lineman David Harrelson pauses for a rest.

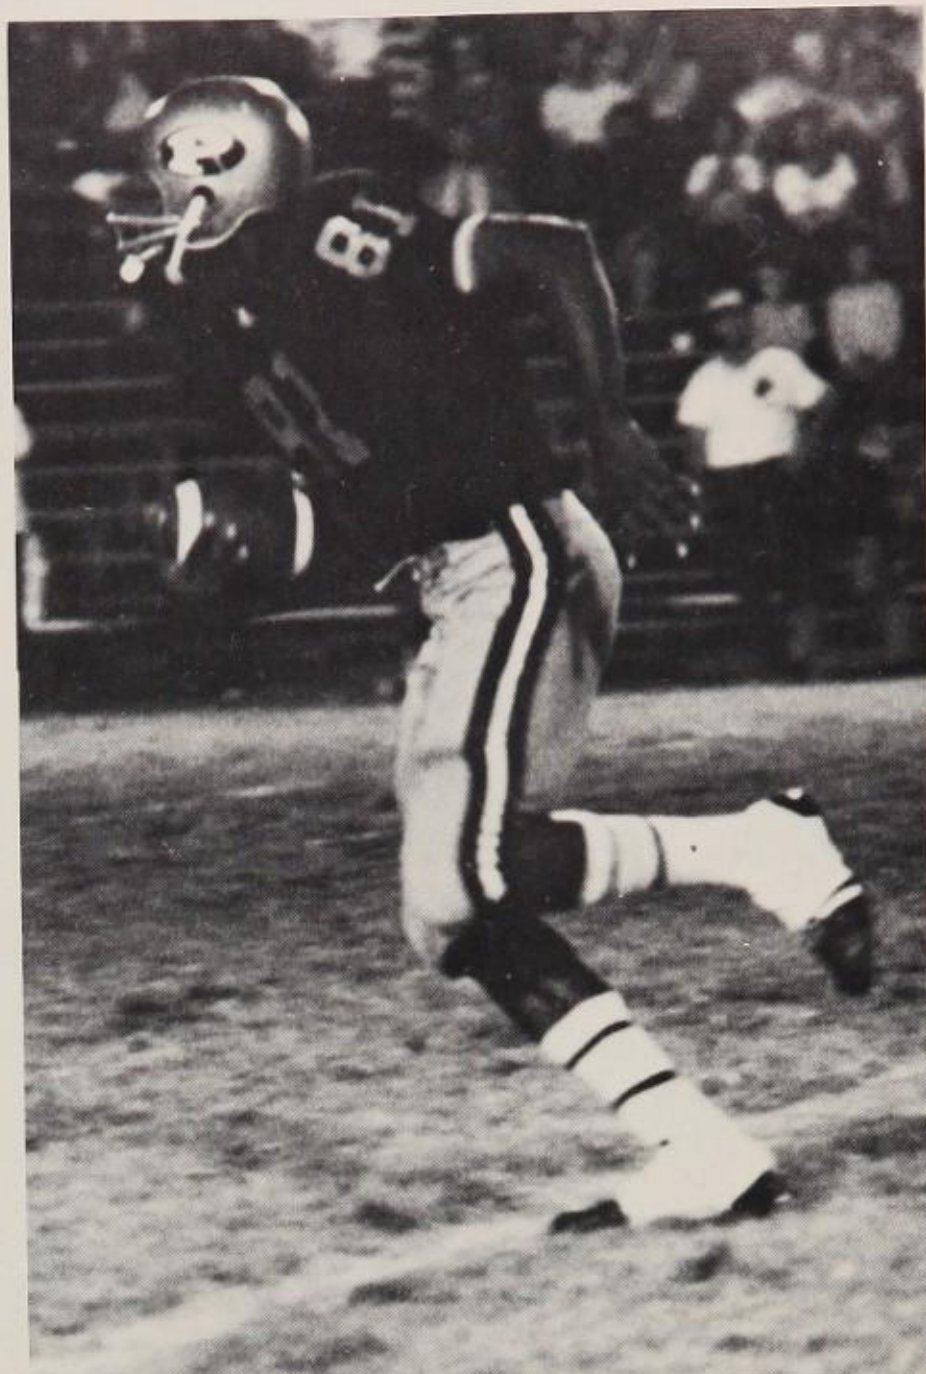

Senior Terry Ely (10) finds himself unmolested as he gets away a good punt.

Senior Pete Hershock (22) heads for paydirt on Turkey Day.

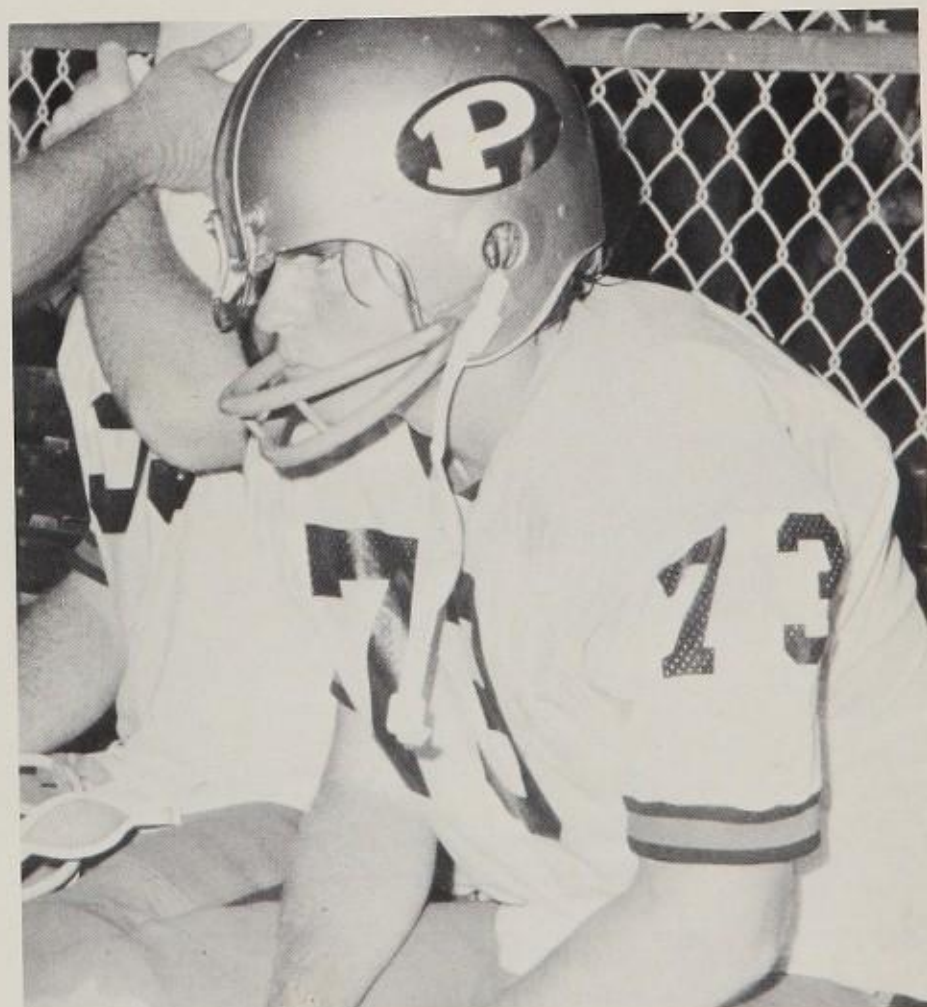

Juniors Mike Mead (21) and Bill Kynes (11) execute a perfect handoff.

Mike Dix (81) finds ample running room after hauling in a pass.

Billy Howard (33) is brought down after a long gain against Winter Haven.

Mike Mead (21) hits the wide open spaces against a porous defense.

Bill Kynes (11) rolls out and gets set to rifle a bullet to a receiver.

Bob Hume (75) and Greg Allen (63) team up to bring down a Hillsborough ball carrier while the rest of the Panther defense dominate the Terrier line.

Panthers See Happy Endings

Compiling a 1-4 record for the first five games, the Panthers showed spirit for the last half of the season.

The sixth game was a slow moving affair with neither the Panther nor the Chamberlain offenses showing much.

The Panthers pulled it out on a great defensive play and won, 7-6.

With things beginning to shape up, the Panthers hosted the Jefferson Dragons and tucked them away, 17-6.

With a winning season now within sight, Plant visited Plant City. But as fate would have it the Panthers lost, 28-16, in a game that saw a penalty flag just about everywhere.

Coming home against the Leto Falcons also proved disastrous as the Panthers were dominated by the Falcons during the entire game and lost, 14-0.

Looking forward to Turkey Day, the fired-up Panthers went to Tampa Stadium with one thing in mind — WIN.

With the offense at its best and a superb defense the Panthers shut out the Terriers, 24-0.

Junior tight end John San (82) finds it easy to side-step this Hillsborough defensive back.

Playing in his last Turkey Day game, Terry Ely (10) puts forth a dive to pick up that extra yard.

Jayvees Have Winning Season

The '72 Baby Panthers coached by Vince Solmonte and Randall Thomas ended a rough season with a respectable 3-2-1 record.

Their first game was a hard fought affair with the Falcons of Leto.

Neither team could take advantage as the game ended in a 6-6 tie.

In the second game against Plant City, the Baby Panthers seemed headed for a win, but Panther supporters were disappointed as the Raiders scored in the last 18 seconds to win, 20-18.

Still looking for a win, the jayvees got it against the "Little" Red of Hillsborough smashing them, 30-8.

With a record of 1-1-1 the Baby Panthers went to the Chamberlain field.

Showing their mastery of the game, the jayvees flashed by the Chiefs to win, 30-6.

The jayvees next victim was the previously undefeated Knights of Robinson.

The Baby Panthers shut out Robinson, 8-0.

In their last game, the jayvees were shutout by a bigger Jefferson Dragon team, 20-0.

The players showed a lot of potential and should make a much needed addition to next year's varsity.

Cagers Take Conference

The 1973 Plant Basketball team, coached by Rich Dyer, won their first Western Conference championship in history with a 17-5 regular season. The Panthers jumped out ahead and for five straight games never trailed their opponent. Plant handily defeated Plant City, Jefferson, Jesuit, and then Chamberlain. After defeating Brandon, the Panthers lost three to St. Petersburg, Jefferson, and Hillsborough. The Panthers then won twelve of their remaining fourteen games. Their start was against King, followed by a loss to Robinson. Getting a rebirth, the fired-up Panthers upset Leto, Plant City, Tampa, Catholic and Jefferson. After stifling Chamberlain and Brandon, the Panthers pulled out an overtime thriller from Hillsborough and then defeated King. Still not able to master Robinson, the Panthers lost their fifth but came back to win the last three games of the season over St. Petersburg, Leto, and Tampa Catholic. The Panthers took the district championship from Robinson and Hillsborough and advanced to Regionals.

Jayvees Score High

The J.V. basketball team under Coach Mays made an exceptional showing in the course of their season.

All twelve of the Baby Panthers were in the thick of the action all season long. With an eight win, seven loss record, the Plant Jayvees gained important experience in the game.

As the season progressed they consistently showed their ability to play.

This group should make an important contribution to the 1974 varsity team.

James Henry goes up for an easy two points in the Plant City game.

Grapplers Gain Experience

The 1973 Panther wrestling team suffered from a lack of experienced wrestlers and consequently had a disappointing season.

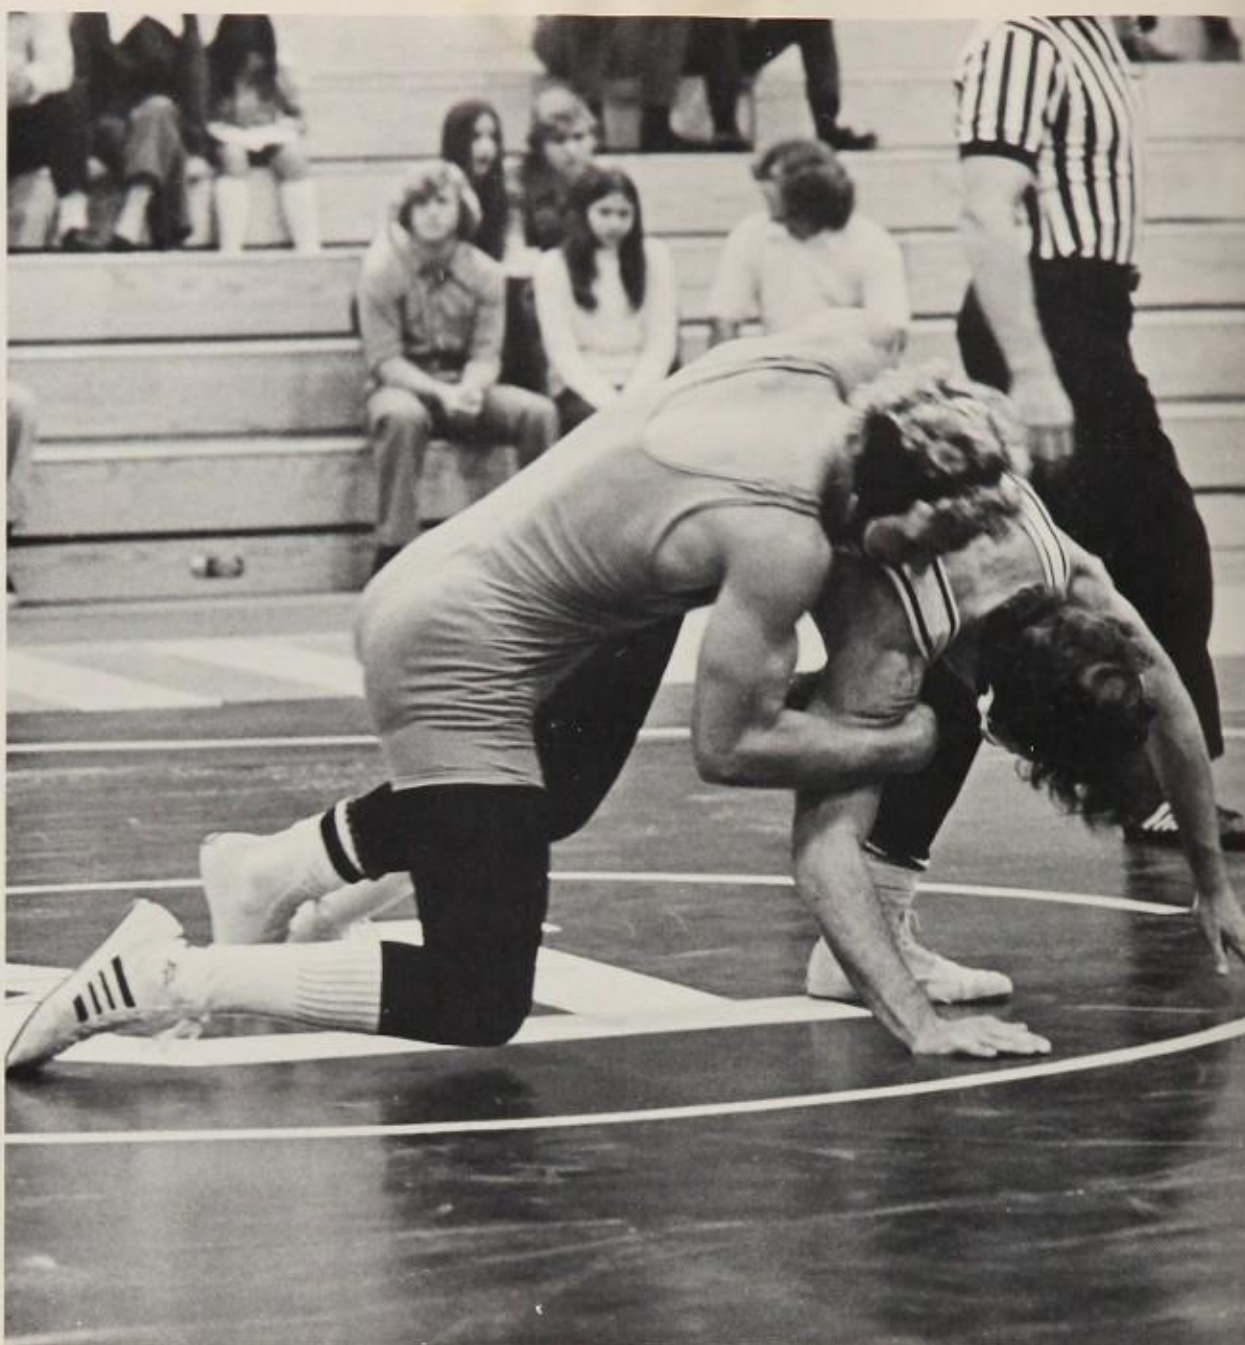

The wrestling team, coached by Joe Kolinsky, did well in the tournaments, but the real matches caught them with their "shoulders down."

The spectators see only the end result of many hours of dedicated workouts.

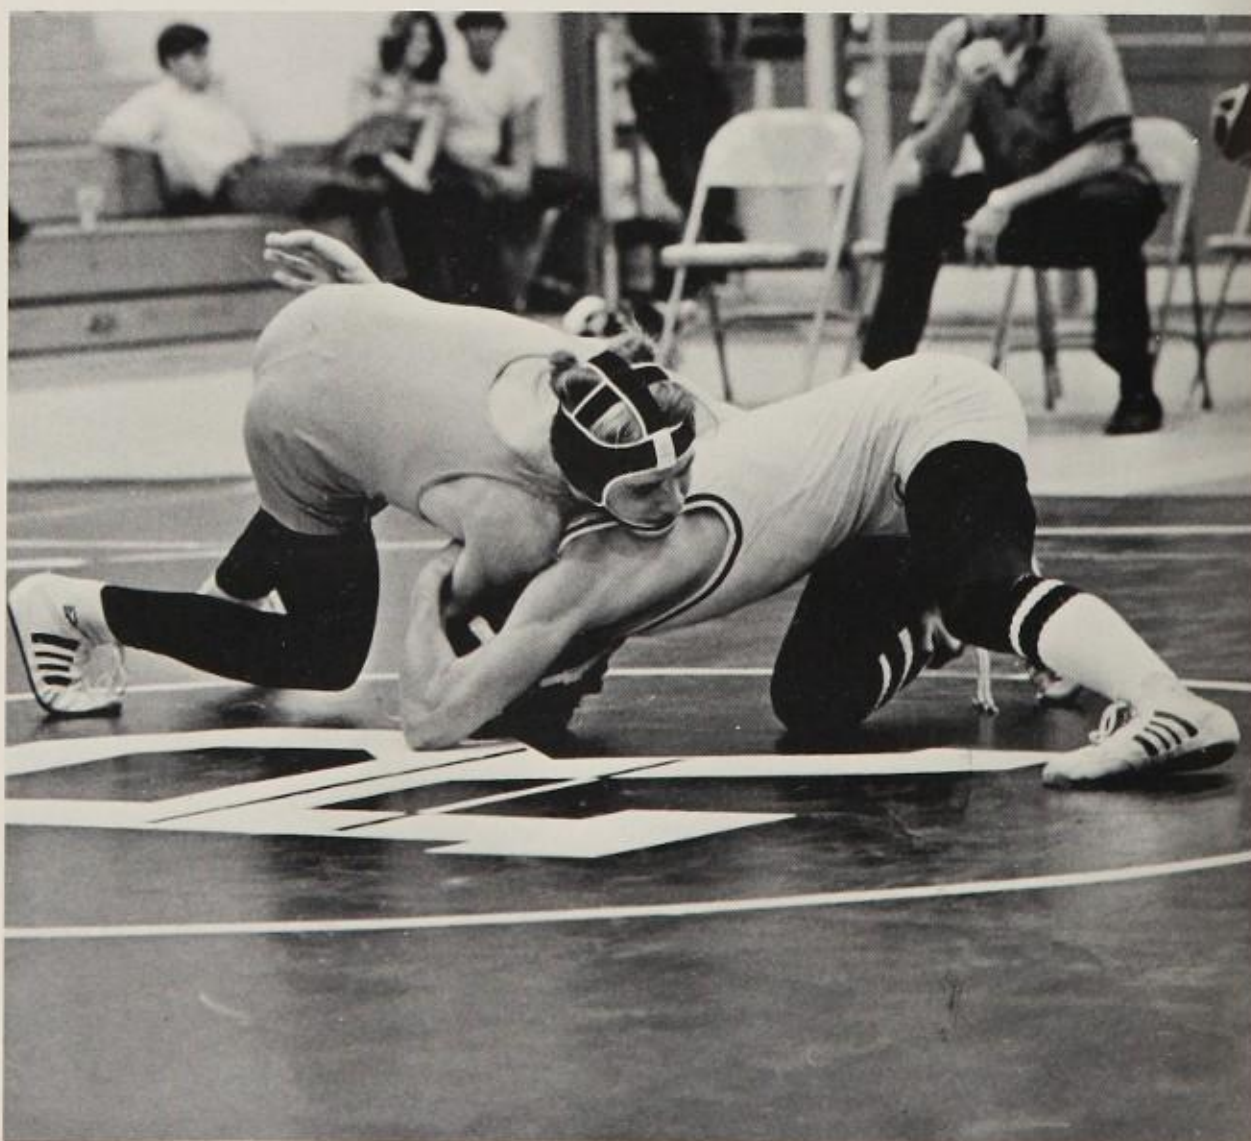

The Panther grapplers ran many miles not only to build up endurance but to keep within their respective weight classes.

The Panther wrestlers, while losing many matches, were a difficult win for all of their opponents as many of the matches were close ones.

The wrestlers have many students returning to the team next year and should be back in the ranks of the powerhouse in 1974.

Cross Country Joins Competition

The Plant track team coached by Vince Solmonte worked throughout the year in preparation for the 1973 track season.

This group practiced after school each day and often into the night.

The team consisted of athletes whose skills covered every area of track and field competition. Another group which competed for P.H.S. this year was the Cross Country team.

This sport was new to Plant but became immensely popular during the year.

These boys practiced their specialty on long runs through Plant's surrounding neighborhoods.

Once they acquired the necessary endurance the team went into competition with other schools throughout the conference.

The hard work of both of these groups paid off as team members won award after award throughout the season.

Swimmers Show Potential

The 1973 Panther swim team coached by Maureen Sullivan and Jack Bentley anticipates a winning season.

The boys' team should be a Western Conference power with five returning lettermen and a host of good sophomores joining the team. Having strong swimmers in six of eight individual events and a top notch relay, the boys expect to improve on last year's fourth place Conference finish.

The girls' team will have to rely on experience this year as they are small in number.

Besides fielding a good relay team, the girls are strong in five individual events and could take the Conference title for the second year in a row. Both the boys and the girls have been practicing since early January and being dominated with sophomore talent expect to get stronger as the season progresses.

Looking forward to a successful season this year and with only five seniors on the team the tankers expect even greater things in '74.

Team Works for Top Position

The Plant High Baseball Team, with a large number of returning lettermen, looked forward to a winning season.

The "Panther Nine" proved hard to beat in any case.

The team lost very few players in last year's graduating class and those they did lose were replaced by many talented players.

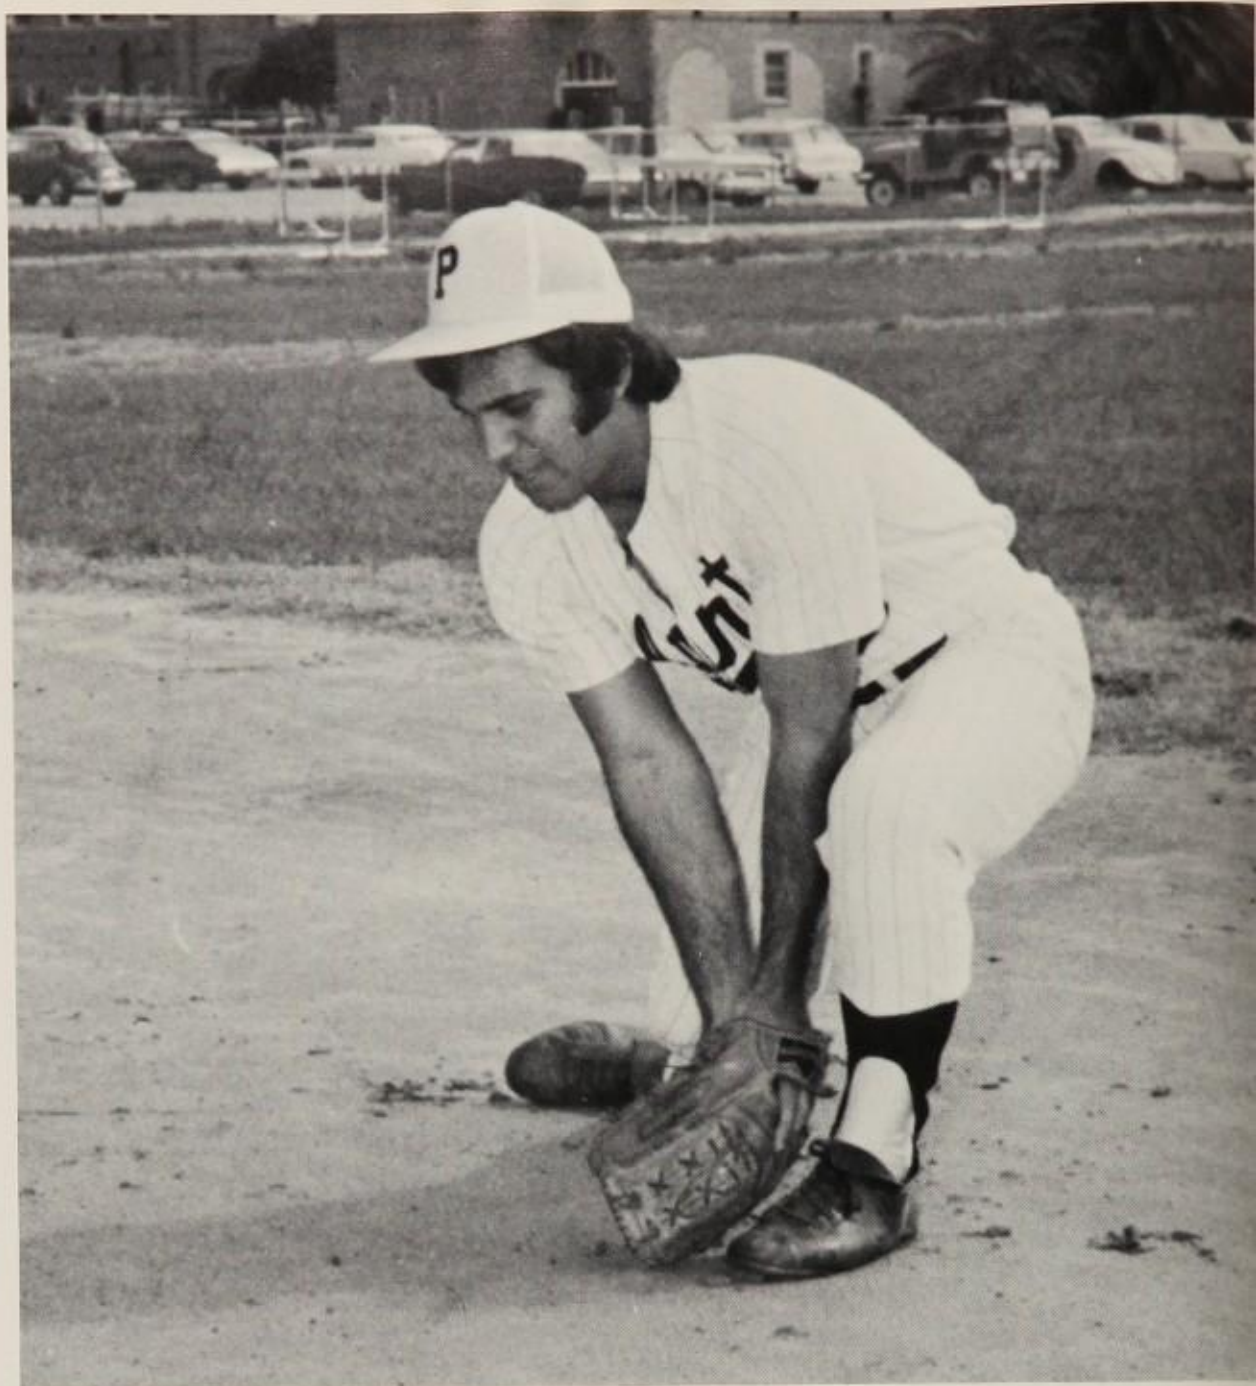

The baseball team was coached by Ted Mims.

With the first game of the season approaching, the Plant Baseball Team practiced rigorously in preparation for a victory.

Each of the players was proficient in the three major areas of baseball: batting, fielding, and running.

The strength and accuracy required in batting, the agility needed in fielding and the speed necessary in base running were skills acquired through constant practice.

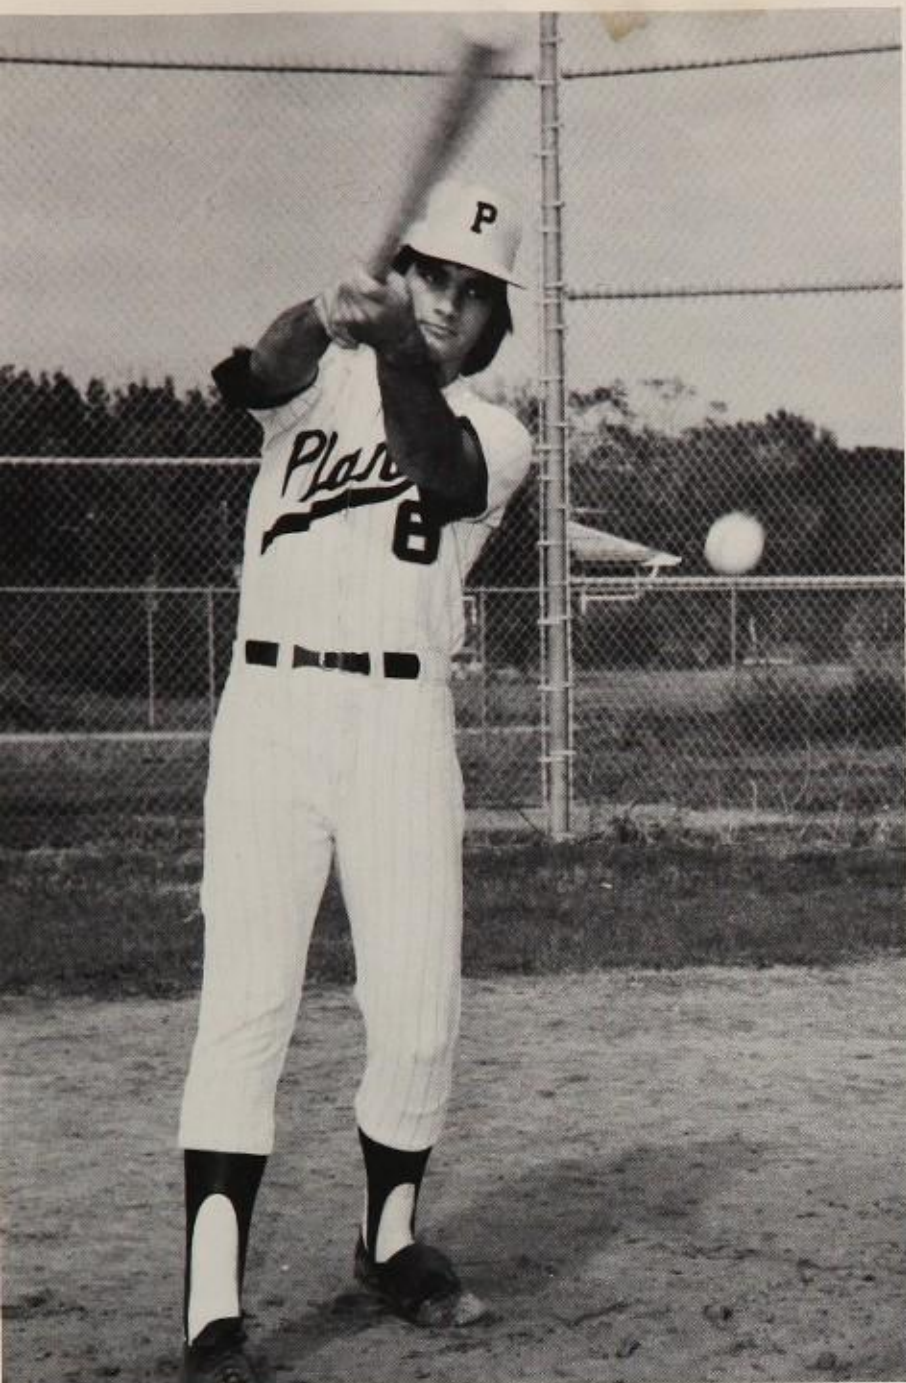

Coach Mims and the Panther team enjoyed a successful season by defeating Jefferson 2-1 for the district championship.

Teams Work for Winning Season

The 1973 boys' and girls' tennis teams practiced for a good season.

The girls' team, coached by Miss Barbara Simpson, was made up of eleven tennis enthusiasts.

This group practiced long to perfect their game.

With a five to two victory in the match against Chamberlain, the girls' team was a strong contender for the Conference title.

The boys' team, coached by Rich Dyer, was also a big contender in the Tennis Conference. As the season progressed the team, through constant practice, improved its skill, and the boys proved their ability in match after match.

Plant Gymnasts Fly High

In its third year of existence, the gymnastics team, coached by Miss Maureen Sullivan, was still the only team of its kind in the county.

This activity gave Plant students a unique opportunity to exhibit their physical coordination and strength on such interesting pieces of equipment as the uneven parallel bars, trampoline, and balance beam.

Each member of the team had to master one of the exercises which included vaulting horse, rings and floor exercise.

As the gymnasts whirled their way around the parallel bars and trampolines, they often found themselves in precarious and dangerous positions that kept their audiences on the edge of their seats. With the interest in gymnastics growing as a result of the '72 Olympics, perhaps there can be inter-scholastic competition with other high schools, in the near future.

For now the spectators will have to settle for the fine exhibitions put on by the county's only gymnastics team.

Golfers Strive to Perfect Skills

The Panther Golf Team, coached by Dan Riveiro, was made up of five students. This was Plant's smallest varsity team, but even with the small number of boys going out, they earned a good position in the conference. This is one sport which few people have a natural talent for. It requires years of practice to perfect the skills needed on the golf course. This team, along with Coach Riveiro, spent many hours practicing for their various tournaments.

Coach Riveiro works with team member Randy Bobbitt in developing good putting technique.

Yearbook Records a Year of Change

By covering all aspects of school life,
the 72-73 Panther staff
strived to recreate
an entire year.

Through summer meetings
and endless hours after school,
the unavoidable deadline
was finally met.

Each editor was responsible for all the pages
in his section,
plus the training
of mystified junior assistants.
Although the business section of the staff
handled all the yearbook sales,
each member had to meet
a certain quota of solicited ads
during the summer.

Each individual had the jobs
of scheduling photographers,
planning pictures, typing
copy and drawing layouts.

On the basis of enthusiasm
and their willingness to work,
new Panther members
were chosen in the Spring
by the advisor, Mr. Stinson.
The most difficult task of all was deciding on the appearance of the yearbook cover.

Despite the problems
of double sessions
and personality conflicts,
the annual staff produced
an unforgettable yearbook.

Baby Panthers Are Full of Fire

Long before the school year began the J.V. cheerleaders were hard at work learning the cheering style of Plant High. They attended the American Cheerleading Association Camp at Leesburg, Florida for one week during the summer and brought back many new ideas for promoting spirit. During their special class, taught by Mrs. Elaine Frank, they practiced gymnastics and formations. These new skills were presented to audiences at pep rallies, football games, and at basketball games. The cheerleaders were chosen in the spring of 1972 by a panel of judges. The selections were based on ability and spirit. These "Baby Panther" girls hope to become a part of next year's varsity squad.

J.V. cheerleaders lead an enthusiastic crowd in a new chant.

Batons Twirl to Soulful Beat

Throughout the year Plant's dazzling majorettes displayed their talents in many exciting performances.

Preparing for these events meant sacrificing three nights a week to practice.

Routines were developed during fifth period where ingenuity was the byword for these experienced twirlers.

Each half-time show and half-time pep rally real "opening night" excitement for the enthusiastic crowd and high high-stepping majorettes. The Gasparilla parades were highlighted by the presence of these girls as they joined the band in a five mile show-stopper.

The majorettes took part in the state marching and twirling contests and returned to Plant with superior ratings for their skills.

Miss Patti Newton worked diligently as sponsor of this active group.

Rhythm Moves in Black and Gold

Long practices under the lights of Dads' Stadium made our dancers thirty-five performances real crowd pleasers.

Our weekly pep rallies sparkled with the precision movements of this group. Performing with our band, these girls were a big part of Plant's award-winning half-time shows.

The dancers participated in marching and dancing contests throughout the year and received top ratings in all competitions.

One special event they took part in was the Gasparilla celebration in February. These eighteen girls were hard at work off the field promoting school spirit in their colorful costumes. Car washes and candy sales kept the squad busy throughout the year.

Mrs. Joann Kelly supervised the never-ending activities of this group.

Active Year for Soulful Bands

The ninety-seven member marching band was more involved this year than in the past.

In May the band went on a tour which took them to Jacksonville, Greensboro, and Atlanta.

The biggest event of the year for the Marching Panthers was the Turkey Day Show.

Preparation and practice made this year's show the best. This year, the band competed in district and state contests which were held in Lakeland. "The Band with the Golden Sound," was invited to participate in the American Bowl festivities held at Tampa Stadium.

To create interest among promising band students, the group visited area junior high schools and gave concerts.

This year Plant hosted the district marching contest in which we earned superior ratings.

The German Band had a busy year. These ten boys performed at pep rallies, JV games, and local benefits.

Band members audition to become members and are chosen by their sponsor Mr. Turner.

This year's addition of another stage and lab band gave more band members a chance to participate.

Annually the stage and lab bands present a Jazz concert which was held this year at East Bay High.

Chorus Sees Many Changes

This year, we at Plant were fortunate to boast one of the best choral departments in the state. Our chorus was made up of 175 highly spirited and hard working students.

New this year was chorus director Mr. John Augenblick. "Augie," as his students affectionately named him, brought many new innovations to the job.

Among these were the Madrigal Ensemble and Chambers Singers. These groups were made up of the choral department's most talented students.

The concert choir, through long and diligent practice has received superior ratings at state contest for the third consecutive year.

Another talented group was the mixed chorus, which performed in many exciting programs before the school.

The entire chorus worked diligently to turn a year of change into a year of entertainment.

Glenda Heyliger practices sight reading for state contest.

Perspective

This is only the second year the Perspective staff has been formed under the sponsorship of Mr. Frank Puleo.

Perspective is Plant's literary magazine published once a year in April.

The twenty-two staff members ask for contributions of art, prose, and poetry from the student body. The group then selects and organizes all the submitted entries to be printed in Perspective.

Members choose their own staff during the year. Working overtime after school, and on the weekends, the staff diligently worked to meet the deadlines.

Co-Editors are Vikki Brunhild and Herby Weinstein.

POP Merits Medalist Honors

This year the Pep O'Plant gave students a bi-weekly summary of current news and offered thirty-two staff members an opportunity to display their journalistic talents.

One of the most interesting features of the newspaper this year was the editorials.

Often controversial, the editorials gave new ideas and suggestions to Plant students and faculty.

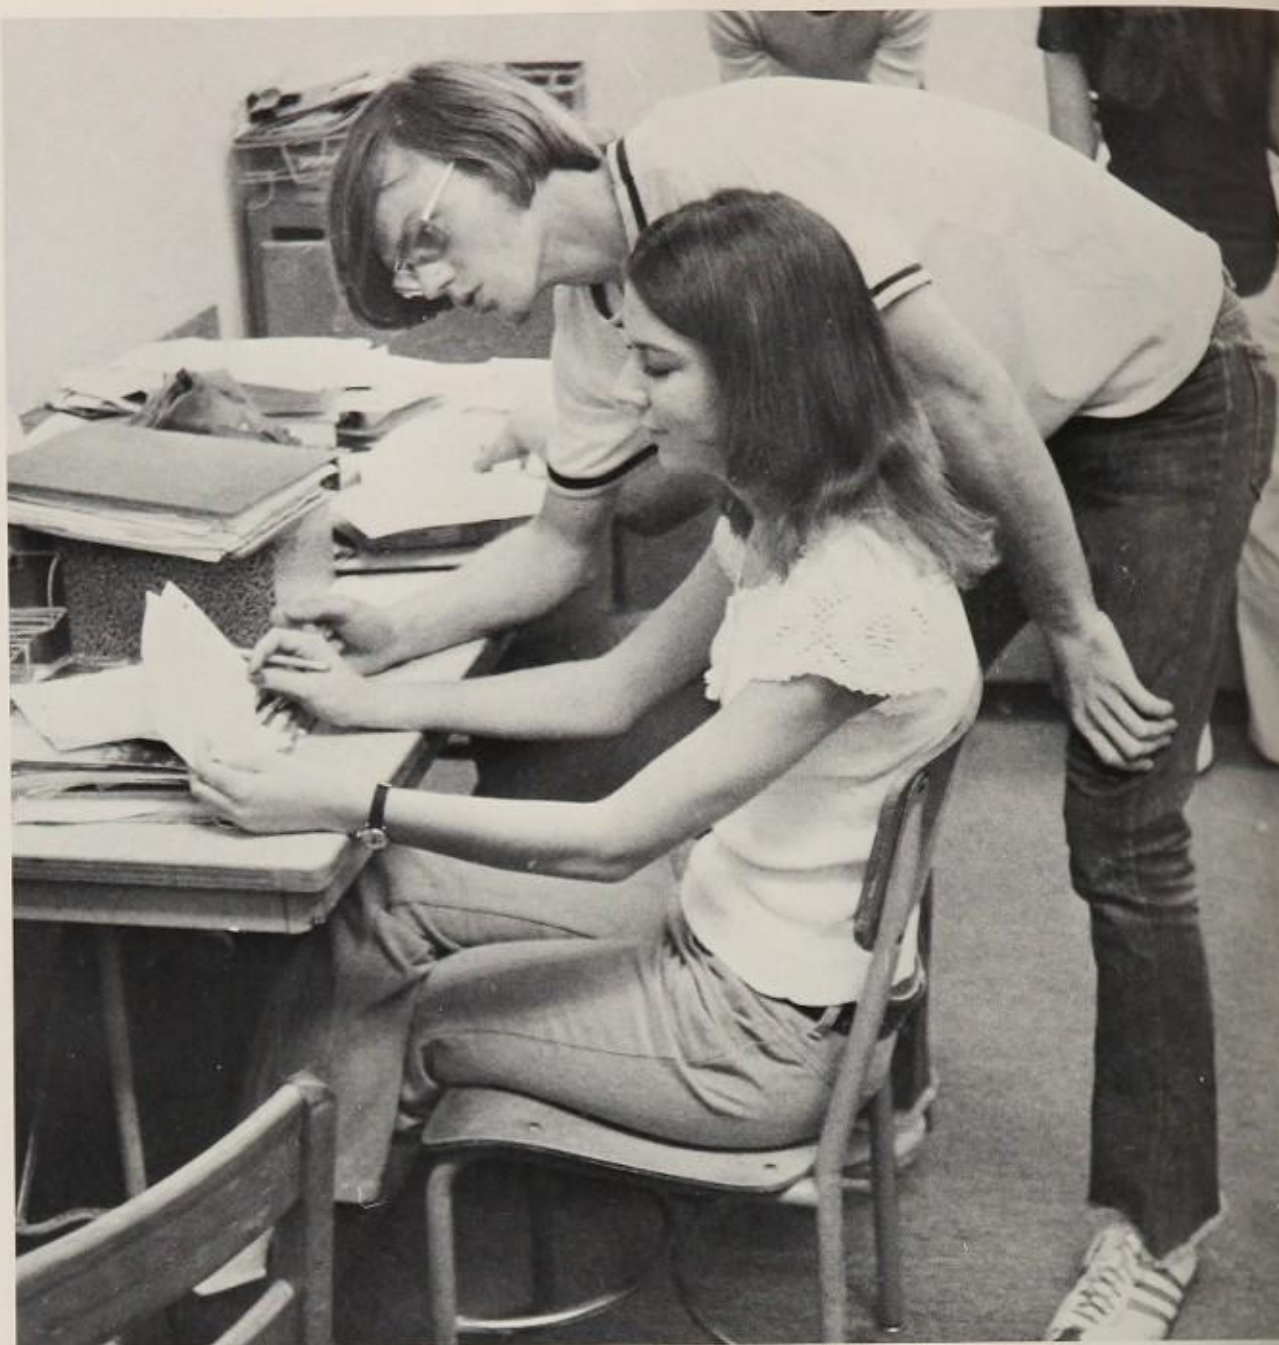

Another new feature which frequently appeared was a page devoted to nostalgia.

This page included stories and photographs reminiscent of the "good old days."

At the conclusion of each year, school newspapers are recognized for superior achievement.

This year the POP was awarded the Medalist and All-American Awards.

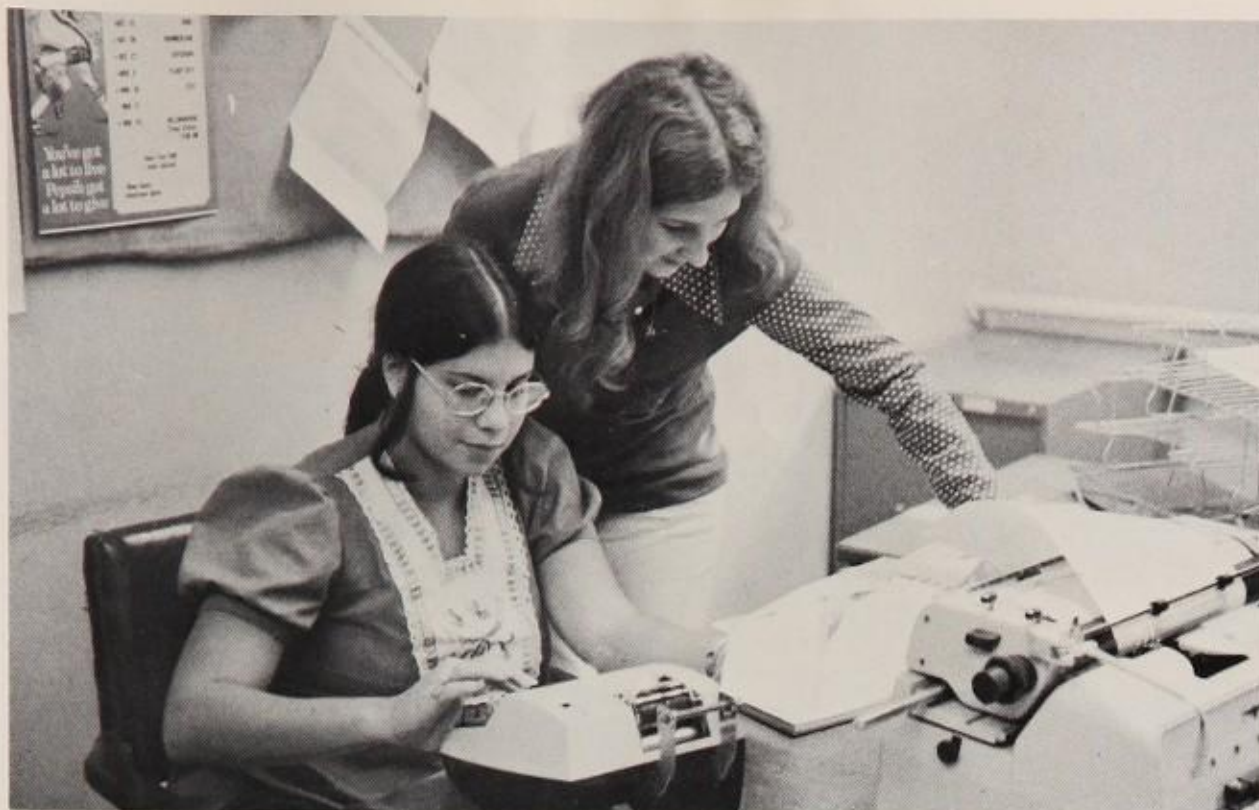

While keeping the school informed of current events, staff members learned the basics of journalism from Mr. Robert Stinson, their advisor.

Carole Taylor, features editor, and Sid Miles, news editor.

NHS Tutors Aid Grateful Students

During formal inductions held each year in the spring and the fall, some of Plant High's most outstanding students are ushered into the National Honor Society.

Chosen on the basis of their character, scholarship, leadership and service, these candidates must maintain an overall 3.0 average with no grade less than a "D" for each semester.

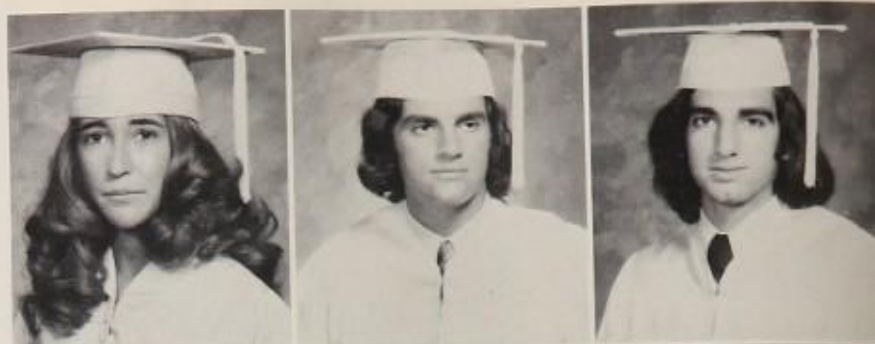

Active in many programs, many members take up the task of tutoring as one of their contributions to the school.

These tutors cover five major areas, which include math, history, science, language, and English. Membership in this honor club is helpful for students' acceptance into college.

From the club's membership of one hundred, and, several delegates are chosen to represent Plant at the state convention.

Sponsors Mrs. Mays Estes, Mrs. Florence Segall, and Mr. Danny Rodriguez offer their assistance whenever it is needed.

Cadets Offered Varied Program

Reserve Officers Training Corps is a program intended to give interested students a taste of military life.

Cadets choose to participate in the rifle team, drill team, or color guard.

This year the rifle team competed against other area high schools and against the Hillsborough County Rifle Team.

Twice this year the team went to Fort Benning to compete against approximately thirty-five national teams.

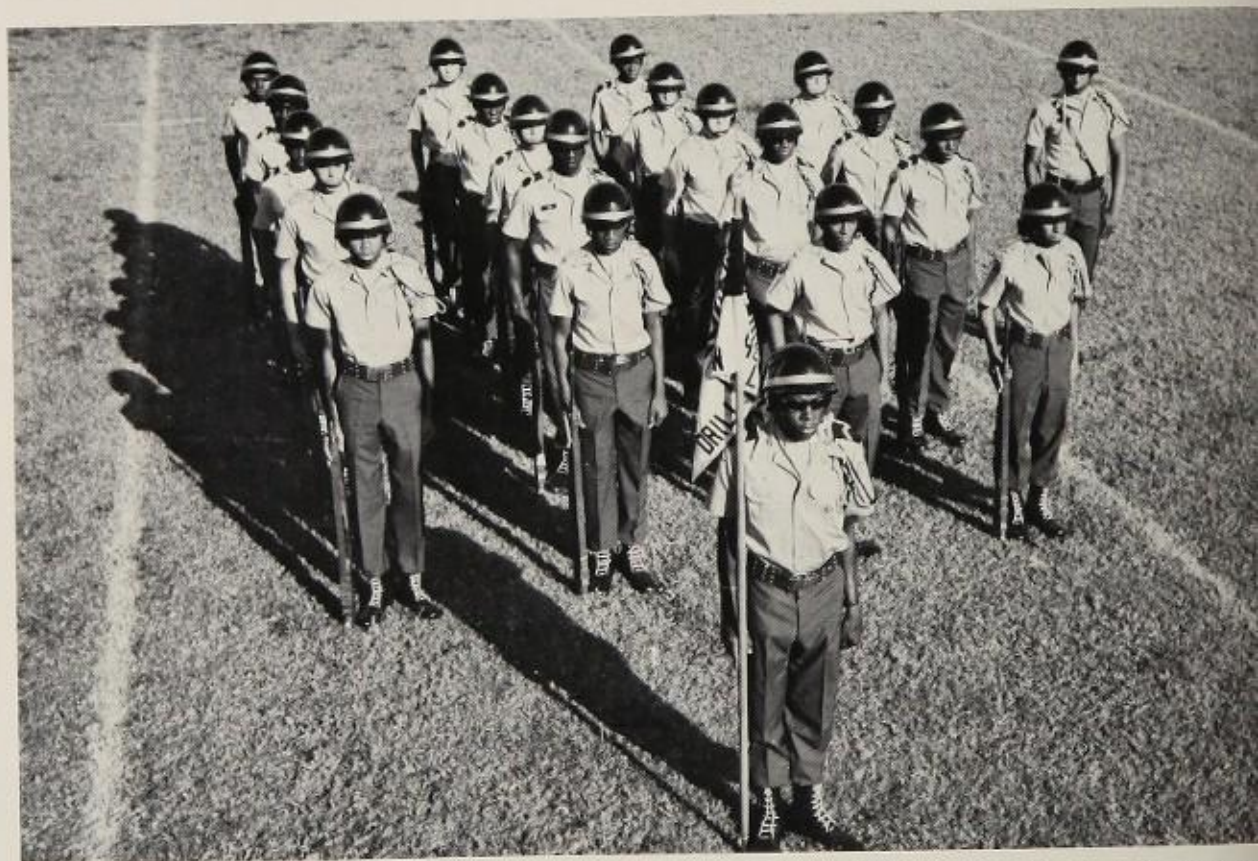

The color guard and drill team participated in many parades. The drill team faced competition at Fort Benning, Georgia; Gainesville and Melbourne, Florida; Fort Rutker, Alabama; and against many area teams on Field Night.

Competition included various intricate drills and formations.

This year's program was made up of eighty-eight cadets and was directed by Sergeant Major Richard Knecht and nine senior officers.

ORGANIZATIONS

Can you take me with you?
For my hand is cold and needs warmth
Where are you going?

Gold and Black

Plant High School's Gold and Black Club was organized for the purpose of honoring and recognizing the students who have shown outstanding service to the school.

Membership requires active and varied participation in extra-curricular activities.

Students must also show their cooperation, dependability and leadership.

Interested sophomores and juniors apply for membership by filling out point sheets listing all academic, athletic, and extra-curricular activities.

Each activity has a specific point value and those students who have accumulated the highest number of points are eligible for membership. Club sponsor is Mr. Ernest Zeman.

Andy Toledo and Lisa Barner go over some of the topics to be discussed at the next meeting.

I Dare You

The club was formed to recognize students who achieve and maintain very high scholastic standards. To become a member students must maintain a straight "A" average for one semester in both grades and conduct. There are two inductions held each year — a banquet in the fall and an assembly in the spring.

Since the club is not allowed to hold fund-raising projects the members involve themselves in school activities.

Mrs. Marguerite Smith and Mrs. Eva Maye Oeffler are the sponsors who encourage the present members to maintain high leadership standards.

The induction party was a highlight for members of I Dare You.

Quill and Scroll

Outstanding members of the PANTHER and Pep O'Plant staffs are inducted into the Quill and Scroll each year on the recommendation of their sponsor Mr. Robert Stinson. Each applicant must submit a letter stating why he thinks he should be considered for membership in the club. In addition, the applicants must rank in the upper third of their class. All Quill and Scroll members of Plant High School automatically become members of the National Quill and Scroll Foundation.

Sid Miles and Eric Carlson display their journalistic abilities in an edition of the paper.

Band Honor Society

Band members who show exceptional interest and ability in the field of music were eligible to be selected for this club.

Applicants must be members of the varsity band, or a participant in the Dancero or Majorette programs.

Since only twenty-five percent of the band was selected, this was an honor and goal which all band members strived to attain.

The club aided in the promotion of many band functions and projects.

Their club sponsor was Mr. John Turner.

Band members practice hard to accomplish perfection.

Our Fine Arts Club at Plant is made up of the many talented students in the school.

The club holds auditions
twice a year
at the start of each semester.

Students wishing to join
must audition
in front of a panel
of judges.

Members of this club
have such artistic talents as singing, dancing,
painting, writing, acting,
and playing musical instruments.

Fine Arts again
participated in Panther Prowl
as they have in previous years.

The club produced
a talent show for the school and also did several shows for charitable organizations.

Mrs. Mary Gentry
is the club sponsor.

Elaborately costumed, a prospective Fine Arts member anxiously awaits her audition.

Lettermen's Club

The Lettermen's Club honored outstanding athletes at Plant. Any boy who had earned a letter in one of the extra-curricular sports activities was eligible for membership. These activities included football, basketball, tennis, wrestling, swimming, golf, track, and baseball. Girls were required to letter in such sports as swimming or tennis. Another possible way for students to be accepted was by earning a letter for academic excellence. The letters which each student received were in the shape of a "P" with gold and black colors. They had emblems designating the activity involved. Coach Dan Riveiro and Coach Ken Russell were the sponsors.

Optimettes

This year spirit was promoted through Opti's annual mum sale for the Turkey Day game. They had many service and fund raising projects ranging from hand-painting Christmas ornaments to back-breaking car washes. These energetic girls planned a ten-year reunion for Optimette alumni. This affair featured all the top hits from 1962 with club members as headliners. This year the girls welcomed prospective members with a tea, the theme being an Opti Ice Cream Parlor. A skit was presented and home made ice-cream was churned by club members. This year under the supervision of Mrs. Fernandez the Optimettes proved that service and fun do mix.

Lionettes

Lionettes participated in many school activities this year and continued to benefit Plant High and their community. Sponsored by Mrs. Ferguson, the club has had various projects for the year, including their balloon sale for the big send-off at the Turkey Day Game. Through hours of hard work the Lionettes skit placed second in Panther Prowl. Their main service project for this year involved visits to various homes for underprivileged children, where they entertained by singing, reading and playing games. This group worked hard but they took time off to stun the crowd with their performance in last fall's "powderpuff football game."

Key Club

Key Club is an active and energetic boys' club at Plant.

One of their main projects

for the year

was to renovate the pond

located at the entrance of the new wing.

Along with Kiwanettes,

Key Club sponsored the

Turkey Day Dance after Plant's

Kiwanettes

Members of Kiwanettes worked hard to serve school and community throughout the year. Each year Kiwanettes and Key Club sponsor the Turkey Day Dance which was held at the Trowel Trades Building. Sponsored by the Palma Ceia Kiwanis, the club also supplied the school with much needed bike racks. Kiwanettes helped out at the Tampa Junior Museum's Haunted House in order to raise money for the museum's operation. The club also supported an orphan overseas as they have in past years. The girls enjoyed themselves by participating in the powder puff football games and in Panther Prowl. Kiwanettes was sponsored by Miss Sally Burrows and Mrs. Toni Abercrombie.

Members tell "Everything You Always Wanted to Know about Kiwanettes" at their fall tea.

Civinettes

Civinettes began their schedule of activities in the fall. For the Turkey Day game, Civinettes lent money to the cheerleaders so that they could buy new uniforms.

Their community service for this year was a Christmas party for the underprivileged children at Rosa Valdez kindergarten.

They participated in the powder puff competition at Dad's stadium.

Last spring Civinettes co-sponsored Twirp Twirl.

At this dance the girls have a chance to ask the boys of their choice.

Civitans

Civitans is an active boy's service club at Plant which helped this year in many school activities and functions.

Their big project was the popular spring dance, Twirp Twirl, which they co-sponsored with Civinettes. For this function it is customary for the dates to switch roles, and the girls ask the boys.

Panther Turkey Day spirit was boosted by the Civitans Panther Prowl skit "Invasion from the Red Planet." This skit took third place in the competition. Civitans helped to pay for the lighted sign which is located in the main hall of the school. Plant's Jr. Civitans are sponsored by the Civitans International Club of Tampa.

Roteens

The Interbay Rotary Club sponsors the Roteens who provide a source of entertainment, fellowship, and service to the community.

Roteens is one of the true service clubs at Plant.

This is illustrated by their year-round project. Every month several members make a trip to McDonalds Training Center to work with and help the retarded children.

This year during football season Roteens raised money by selling spirit booster ribbons.

This successful club is sponsored by Miss Sandra Eason who assists with planning and advising.

Interact

Sponsored by the Interbay Rotary Club of Tampa, Interact is an active and highly spirited boys' club at Plant. Their bright blue and gold jerseys distinguish Interact members from other students. Each year the club earns money for the school through the sale of "Plant High" stickers frequently seen on students' cars. Club sponsor, Mr. David Conrad, assisted with planning the year's activities and advising the group.

La Sertoa

The members of La Sertoa benefited the community with several projects throughout the year.

This group visited the Old People's Home at Christmas where they entertained the residents with a party.

As in previous years, La Sertoa sponsored the calendar dance where the calendar couples were announced.

For Panther Prowl, the club worked hard on their skit, "The Jungle Book," and received third place.

As an extra project, the girls supported a child from overseas.

Junior Exchangettes

Junior Exchangettes is a service club whose members are active in various projects which are beneficial to Plant and its surrounding community. As their main service project for the year, they chose to undertake the task of sanding the bleachers in the stadium. The club's primary money making project was the annual sale of chocolate candies. Under the welcomed guidance of Miss Katherine Sible, the girls strive to develop the qualities of leadership initiative, and responsibility.

Interclub Council

Presidents of all active school clubs make up the Interclub Council.

Regulations for service, honor and interest clubs are decided upon and high standards are maintained by the council.

In addition to the task of regulating club policies these students are active in many other areas of work.

Processing service club applications and dividing them among the clubs is one of their duties. Each year the group undertakes a project to earn money. Club sponsor, Mr. Larry Wagers and the club's president, help to advise and counsel this school spirited club.

Discussion of club policies is a feature at Interclub meetings.

German Club

The main purpose of the German Club was to help interested students learn more about the language and culture of Germany. Their monthly meetings proved to be quite fascinating and educational. This year, for the interest club project, members of the club collected used toys for needy children during the Christmas season. Mrs. Renee Fisher served as the faculty advisor of this language club.

Pan American Club

The Pan American Club created interest in Latin American countries and further study in the Spanish language and culture.

This was achieved through many extracurricular projects and activities throughout the year.

Improving the relationship between the United States and Latin America was one of their major goals.

Many of the members of this club devoted much of their time to collect money for the Managua, Nicaragua earthquake.

An induction party was given this past fall for all the new members.

The sponsor of the active Pan American Club was Mrs. Carmen Escobar.

New members discuss upcoming events in the club.

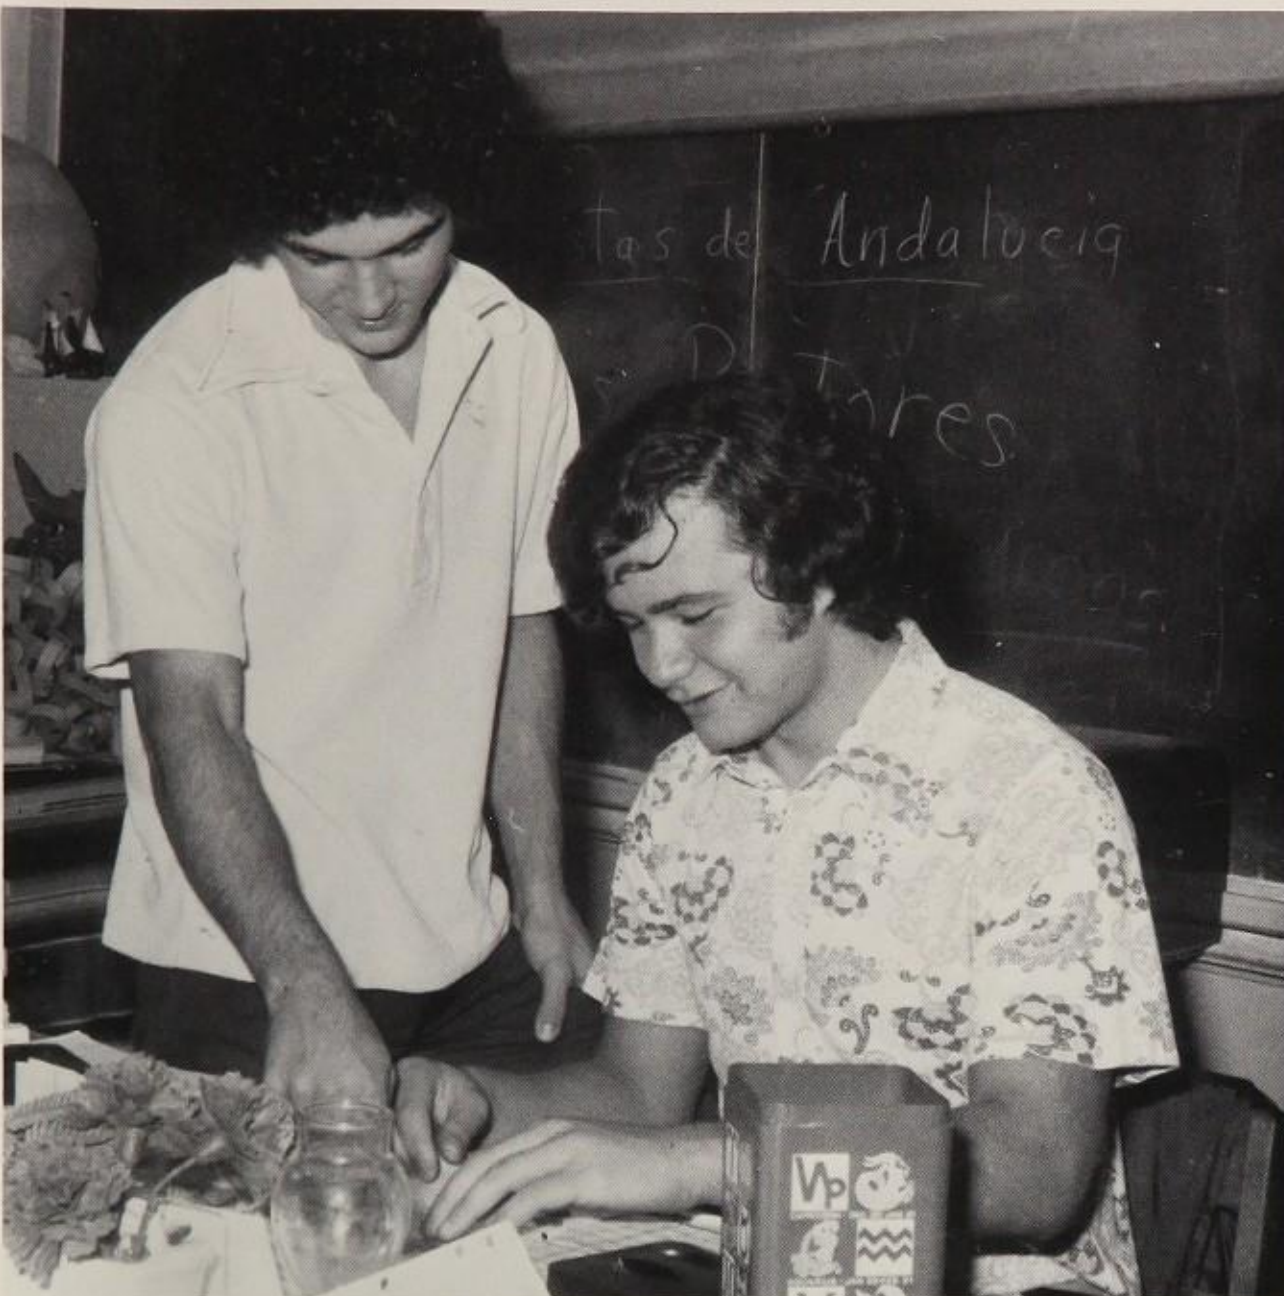

Old members enjoy themselves at the fall inductions.

Spanish Honor

The Spanish Honor Society recognizes outstanding Spanish III and IV students who have earned an "A" average in Spanish and overall "B" average or better in all other classes. It not only recognizes these students but encourages them to further their studies in the language, the idioms, customs and cultures. In depth study of the Americas and Spain are featured at all meetings. In the Spanish Declamation Contest awards are given to outstanding Spanish students. Expenses for the contest are partly paid by the dues collected from the members. The society is under the sponsorship of Mr. Jack Dayan.

French Club

This year the Plant French Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Renee Fisher, undertook a variety of projects.

Last fall, the group opened their popular "French Pastry Shop" to the crowds of students and college representatives attending College Night.

The French Singers were a popular part of the club's activities. This group had the distinction of performing at a reception for the Secretary General and the Executive Director of the French Alliance. With an increased membership this organization enjoyed an exciting year.

Latin Honor

The Latin Honor Society recognizes outstanding students of the language, and also encourages members to further their studies in idioms, customs, and cultures.

The purpose of the club is to honor Latin students who have made "A" or "B" in Latin, as well as other subjects.

The inductions party given for incoming members and also for the installation of officers was held at the Sweden House.

Math Club

The Math Club was formed in 1968 and was made up of students interested in the field of mathematics. They tried to improve their math skills while learning rules and techniques. Discussions were held on topics ranging from basic mathematics to calculus and Math 5. Interesting guest speakers were sometimes featured at meetings.

Mrs. Margaret Megahee and Mrs. Linda Coleman were the math club sponsors.

Eric, Joyce, and Ken compute difficult calculus problems on the new computer.

Science-Ecology

This year the Ecology Club and Science Club combined to form one organization. One of their main goals was to try to preserve the natural beauty of our community. After the Christmas holidays, the club set up a "recycling" center. The members of the club devoted much of their time to this project. Using a machine provided by the State Forestry Service, they turned used Christmas trees into valuable mulch for plants. These students, under the sponsorship of Mr. David Schutt and Mr. Frank Puleo, have shown us how important science and ecology can be.

Library Club

The Library Club was continually striving to improve library service to accommodate student interests.

Membership was open to all interested students.

Some of the group's main activities concerned

Plant's new library and audio-visual facilities, to be built in front of the school.

These students held a cupcake and candy sale on Halloween Day, to earn funds for the library.

They held poster parties and made decorations for the holidays.

During National Library Week members encouraged students to use their library by posting signs throughout Plant.

This club met under the aegis of Miss Vickie Giunta and Miss Terry Abalon.

Chess Club

The Chess Club, sponsored by Mr. John Brandenberger, is in its second year of existence. The team had a winning season. They are undefeated. One team Plant hoped to challenge was the University of South Florida's. They planned to go to the National Chess Match in Atlanta this spring. Also planned was a trip to New York or Chicago for the four top players in order to attend national high school and amateur matches sponsored by the United States Chess Federation.

Commercial Club

Plant's Commercial Club was formed three years ago.

The club's purpose is to promote student interest in the business world.

The members of this club take such courses as bookkeeping, advanced typing, business math, business law, and shorthand.

Being in the Commercial Club gives many students a chance to hold positions in local firms through the DCT program.

Plans are discussed then made for these students as they prepare for the business life they have chosen for after graduation.

During the year they had guest speakers representing various colleges, speak at their meetings.

F.H.A. Board

This board is made up of the officers elected by the girls in F.H.A. which of course stands for Future Homemakers of America. This organization is for students enrolled in a home economics course. It is the duty of the board to keep the club a stimulus for the conscientious home economics student wishing to pursue extra-curricular activities in the field. Each monthly meeting consists of an enrichment program and sometimes a speaker is featured. F.H.A. also participates in many benefit programs.

D.C.T.

Diversified Cooperative Training provided a chance for students to prepare themselves for business careers.

Students who attended morning academic classes from seven-fifteen until eleven-fifteen and worked for the remainder of the day, made up the D.C.T. club.

Along with his regular scheduled academic classes, the students were enrolled in at least one D.C.T. class where he learned how to handle himself when applying for a job.

The club was open to juniors and seniors who are at least sixteen years of age having a "C" average or better, and work a minimum of fifteen hours a week.

Upon graduation many students in the D.C.T. program will assume important positions with a variety of local firms.

A number of students will continue their educations at colleges and universities, while many will enroll in business and trade schools.

The wide variety of occupational interests pursued by this group cover every facet of the business world.

Student Council

This year's student council succeeded in uniting Plant's two sessions into one student body through hard work and the support of eighteen hundred concerned students.

The group began their work with the kickoff of the 1972 football season.

Student Council members distributed "Beat Tags" to Panther fans before each game.

This organization's Pep Rally committee worked hard on skits and programs for the weekly rallies. Their imaginative sets, costumes, and scripts helped fire-up the cheering crowds.

They spent weeks organizing this year's Panther Prowl held the night before the Turkey Day game.

As Christmas drew near the council organized their annual canned food drive for needy families.

The student-faculty breakfast was another project undertaken over the holiday season.

This year the Student Council published the student directory and the 1973 Plant calendar. Preparation by the council made Pantherilla a rousing success.

This year's officers were Steve Crawford, president; Tyrone Jones, vice-president;

Becky Brannan, recording secretary;

Patti Roy, corresponding secretary; and Sally Sais, treasurer.

The Panthers charge the Knights for a victory in a pep rally skit.

Student Council officers experience a typical busy day in the council office.

Drama Club

This year's Plant Drama Club endeavored to involve the entire student body in its Thespian activities.

The group worked throughout the year in money-making projects to finance their productions.

Their car wash, held in the fall, was a great success.

Their first presentation was "The Devil and Daniel Webster."

This play was very popular and was performed for a local civic organization. Members of the Drama Club worked in every area of theatrical endeavor.

These students gained experience in acting, directing, set construction, lighting, and costume design.

Youth Council

The Plant High Youth Council is one of the largest and most active chapters of the Hillsborough County Youth Council program. These concerned students take a very active part in the problems of our community. Each week three members of the club leave school to serve on a jury trying the cases of minors. As jurists, they can better understand the situation and use their insight in making a fair decision. One day in court is a true experience to each student. Besides attending court weekly, Youth Council members are helpful in other areas of community life.

Seniors Improve Communication

The senior class of '73 should be extremely proud of their selections for class officers.

This year as president was Reche Williams, vice-president was Andy Toledo, secretary was Joni Herndon, and Pete Herschock served as treasurer.

They helped seniors order caps and gowns, senior graduation announcements, and also conducted senior class meetings. These meetings provided better communication between the students and officers.

Working in cooperation with the administration and their everpresent sponsor Mr. Ish Martinez, the senior class accomplished many things.

Reche, Andy, Pete and Joni take a break from their hectic schedules.

Junior Class Follows Tradition

Chosen by the junior class
as the most qualified for class offices
were Bill Kynes, president;
Ross Perry, vice-president;
Ann Baylor, secretary;
and Cathy Peek, treasurer.

Junior class officers
proved their abilities
as they were faced with a very busy year.

Traditionally,
the junior class sponsors
the junior-senior prom, which was held in May
to honor the senior class.

The officers also had the task of deciding upon the design
of the class ring.

In addition to these traditions,
the junior class followed their instincts to make other plans beneficial to the student body of Plant High.

Under the direction
of junior class sponsor
Mr. Reece Foster
the very industrious
junior officers made plans to repair broken and damaged
lockers about the school.

Ann, Ross, Bill, and Cathy look over renovation of the auditorium.

Baby Panthers

Boost Spirit

After listening to the speeches
the sophomores elected their class officers
out of a field
of well qualified candidates.

The results were:

Brian Albritten, President;
Robert Taylor, Vice President;
Gigi Jennewein, Secretary;
and Terri Sais, Treasurer.

Though the class officers, represented the sophomore class
in many activities,
their main responsibility
was planning
the orientation for next year's sophomores.

An added responsibility
this year

because of Double Session was keeping the spirit high in the Baby Panther Class.

Lending advice on these and other matters is their sponsor,
Mrs. Elizabeth Hazard.

Robert, Brian, Gigi, and Terry illustrate the oneness of their leadership.

Panther Farewell

I wanna be staffette
of the week!
How about Waxilla?
Well, he's got a lotta guts,
a lotta guts . . .
Russell, loook into my eyes.
I think we have
one tired little cowboy . . .
It's our changeling baby.
Oh, you wingo!
Pepsi Wood?
Where's our space cadet?
It's hot cocoa at three A.M.
"No me moleste mosquitos!"
Who wants birthday pizza?
Helen, don't worry about it!
Did Richard slam the door?
Any trash today?
If Grotke would get out of the can . . .
If you find Karen, tackle her!
The janitor's on the loose.
We're out of Quad-Paks again?
I don't believe she's in PAD!
Our shredded cover design.
Mango, Florida?
Is that Debby's cornbread?
Overcoming all odds,
the '73 PANTHER
is here at last.

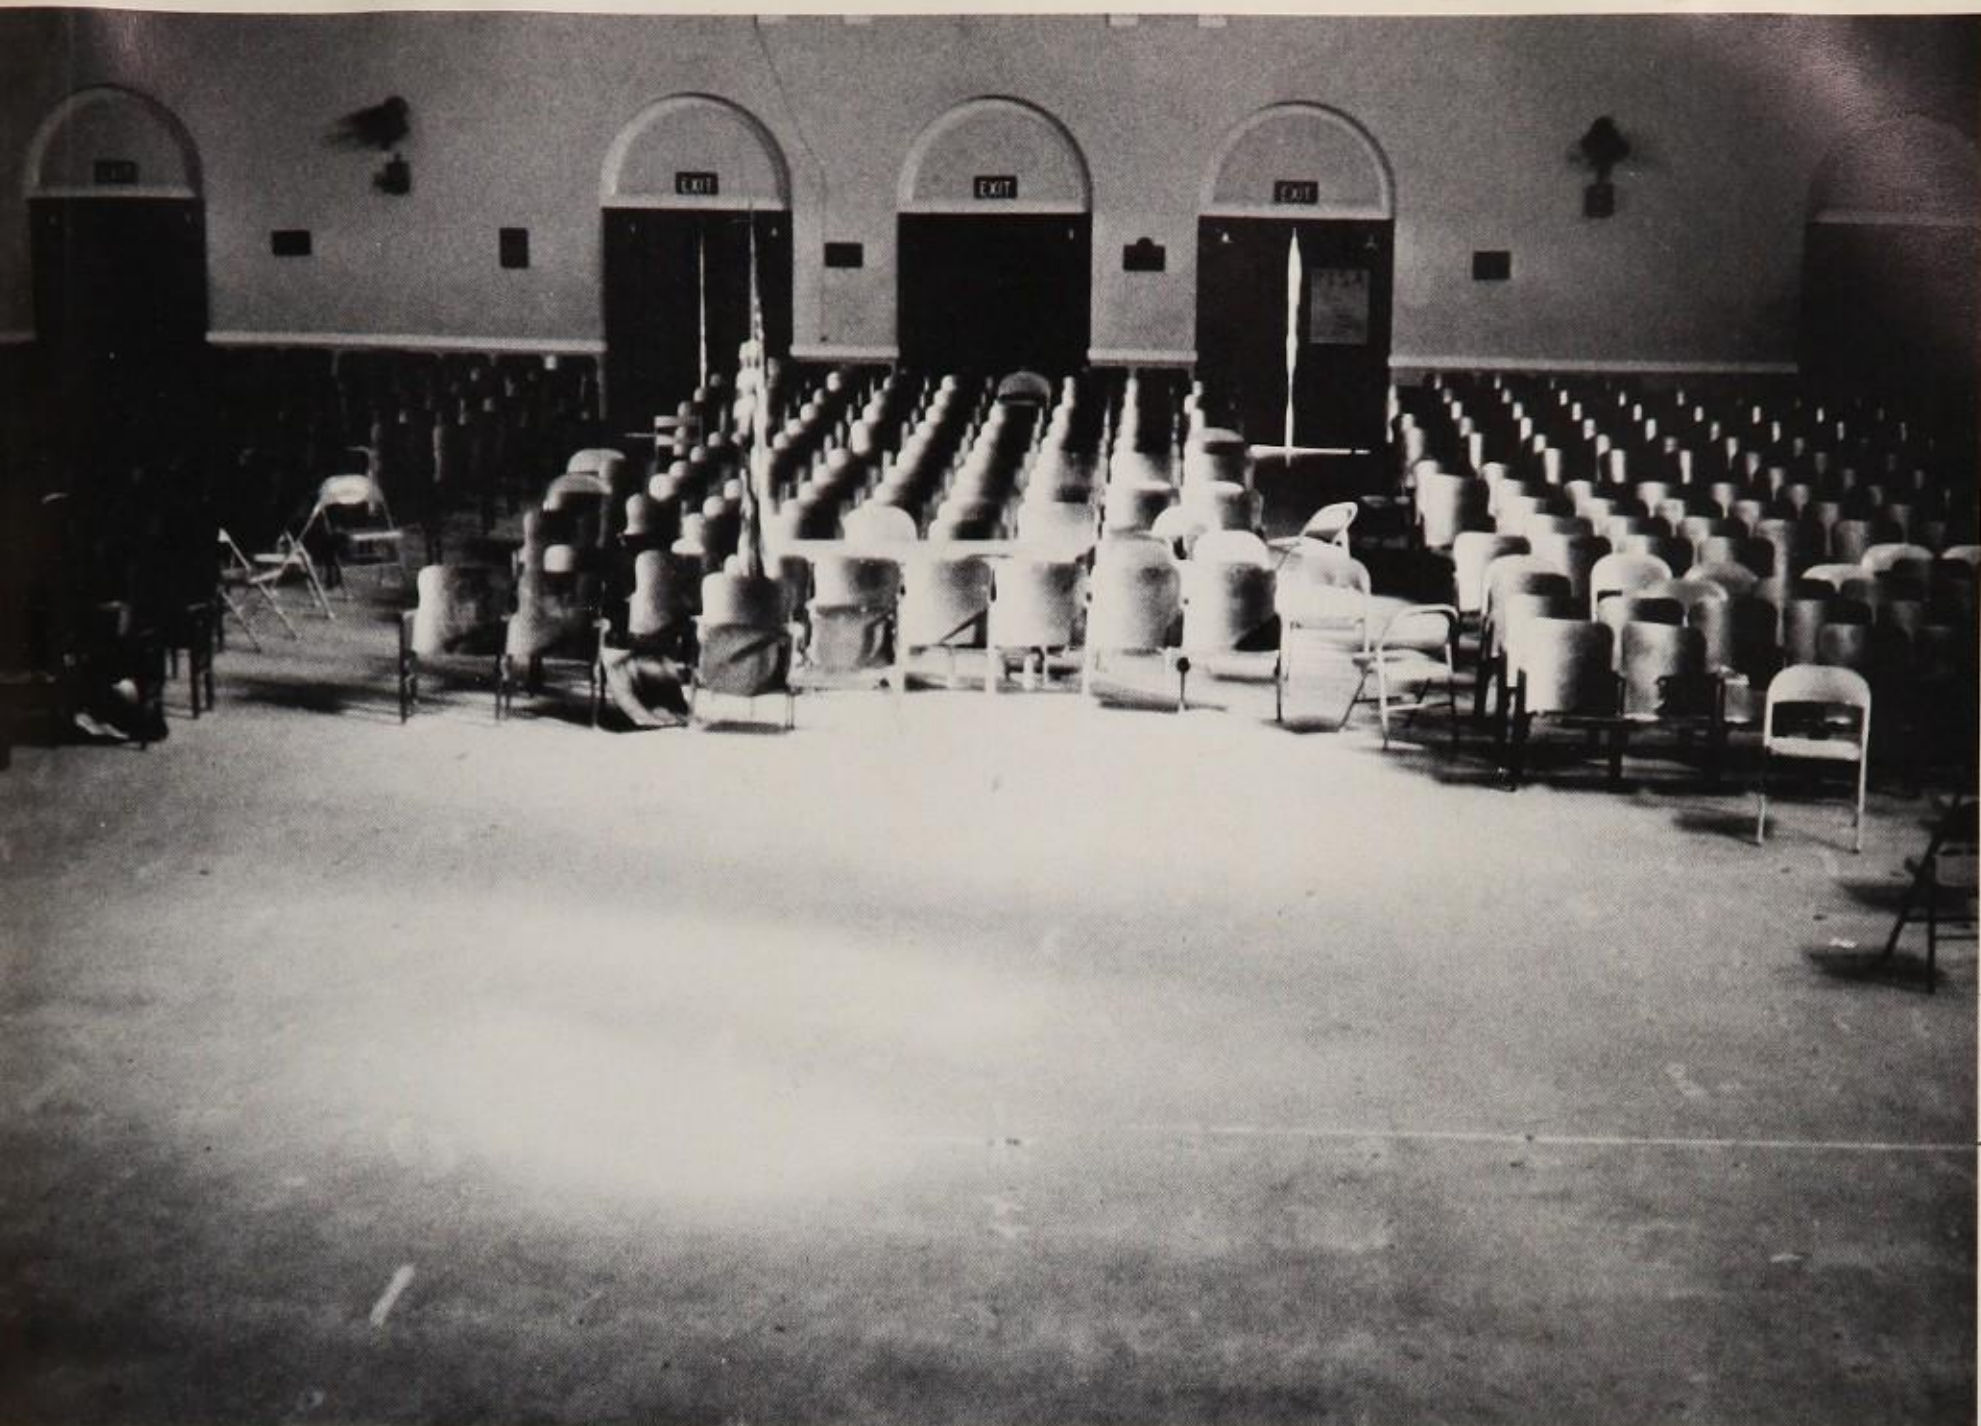

*It's over now . . .
And I remember
Days when our lives
Wouldn't rhyme.
I passed you in the hall
Last Tuesday . . .
"Sorry but I haven't time."*

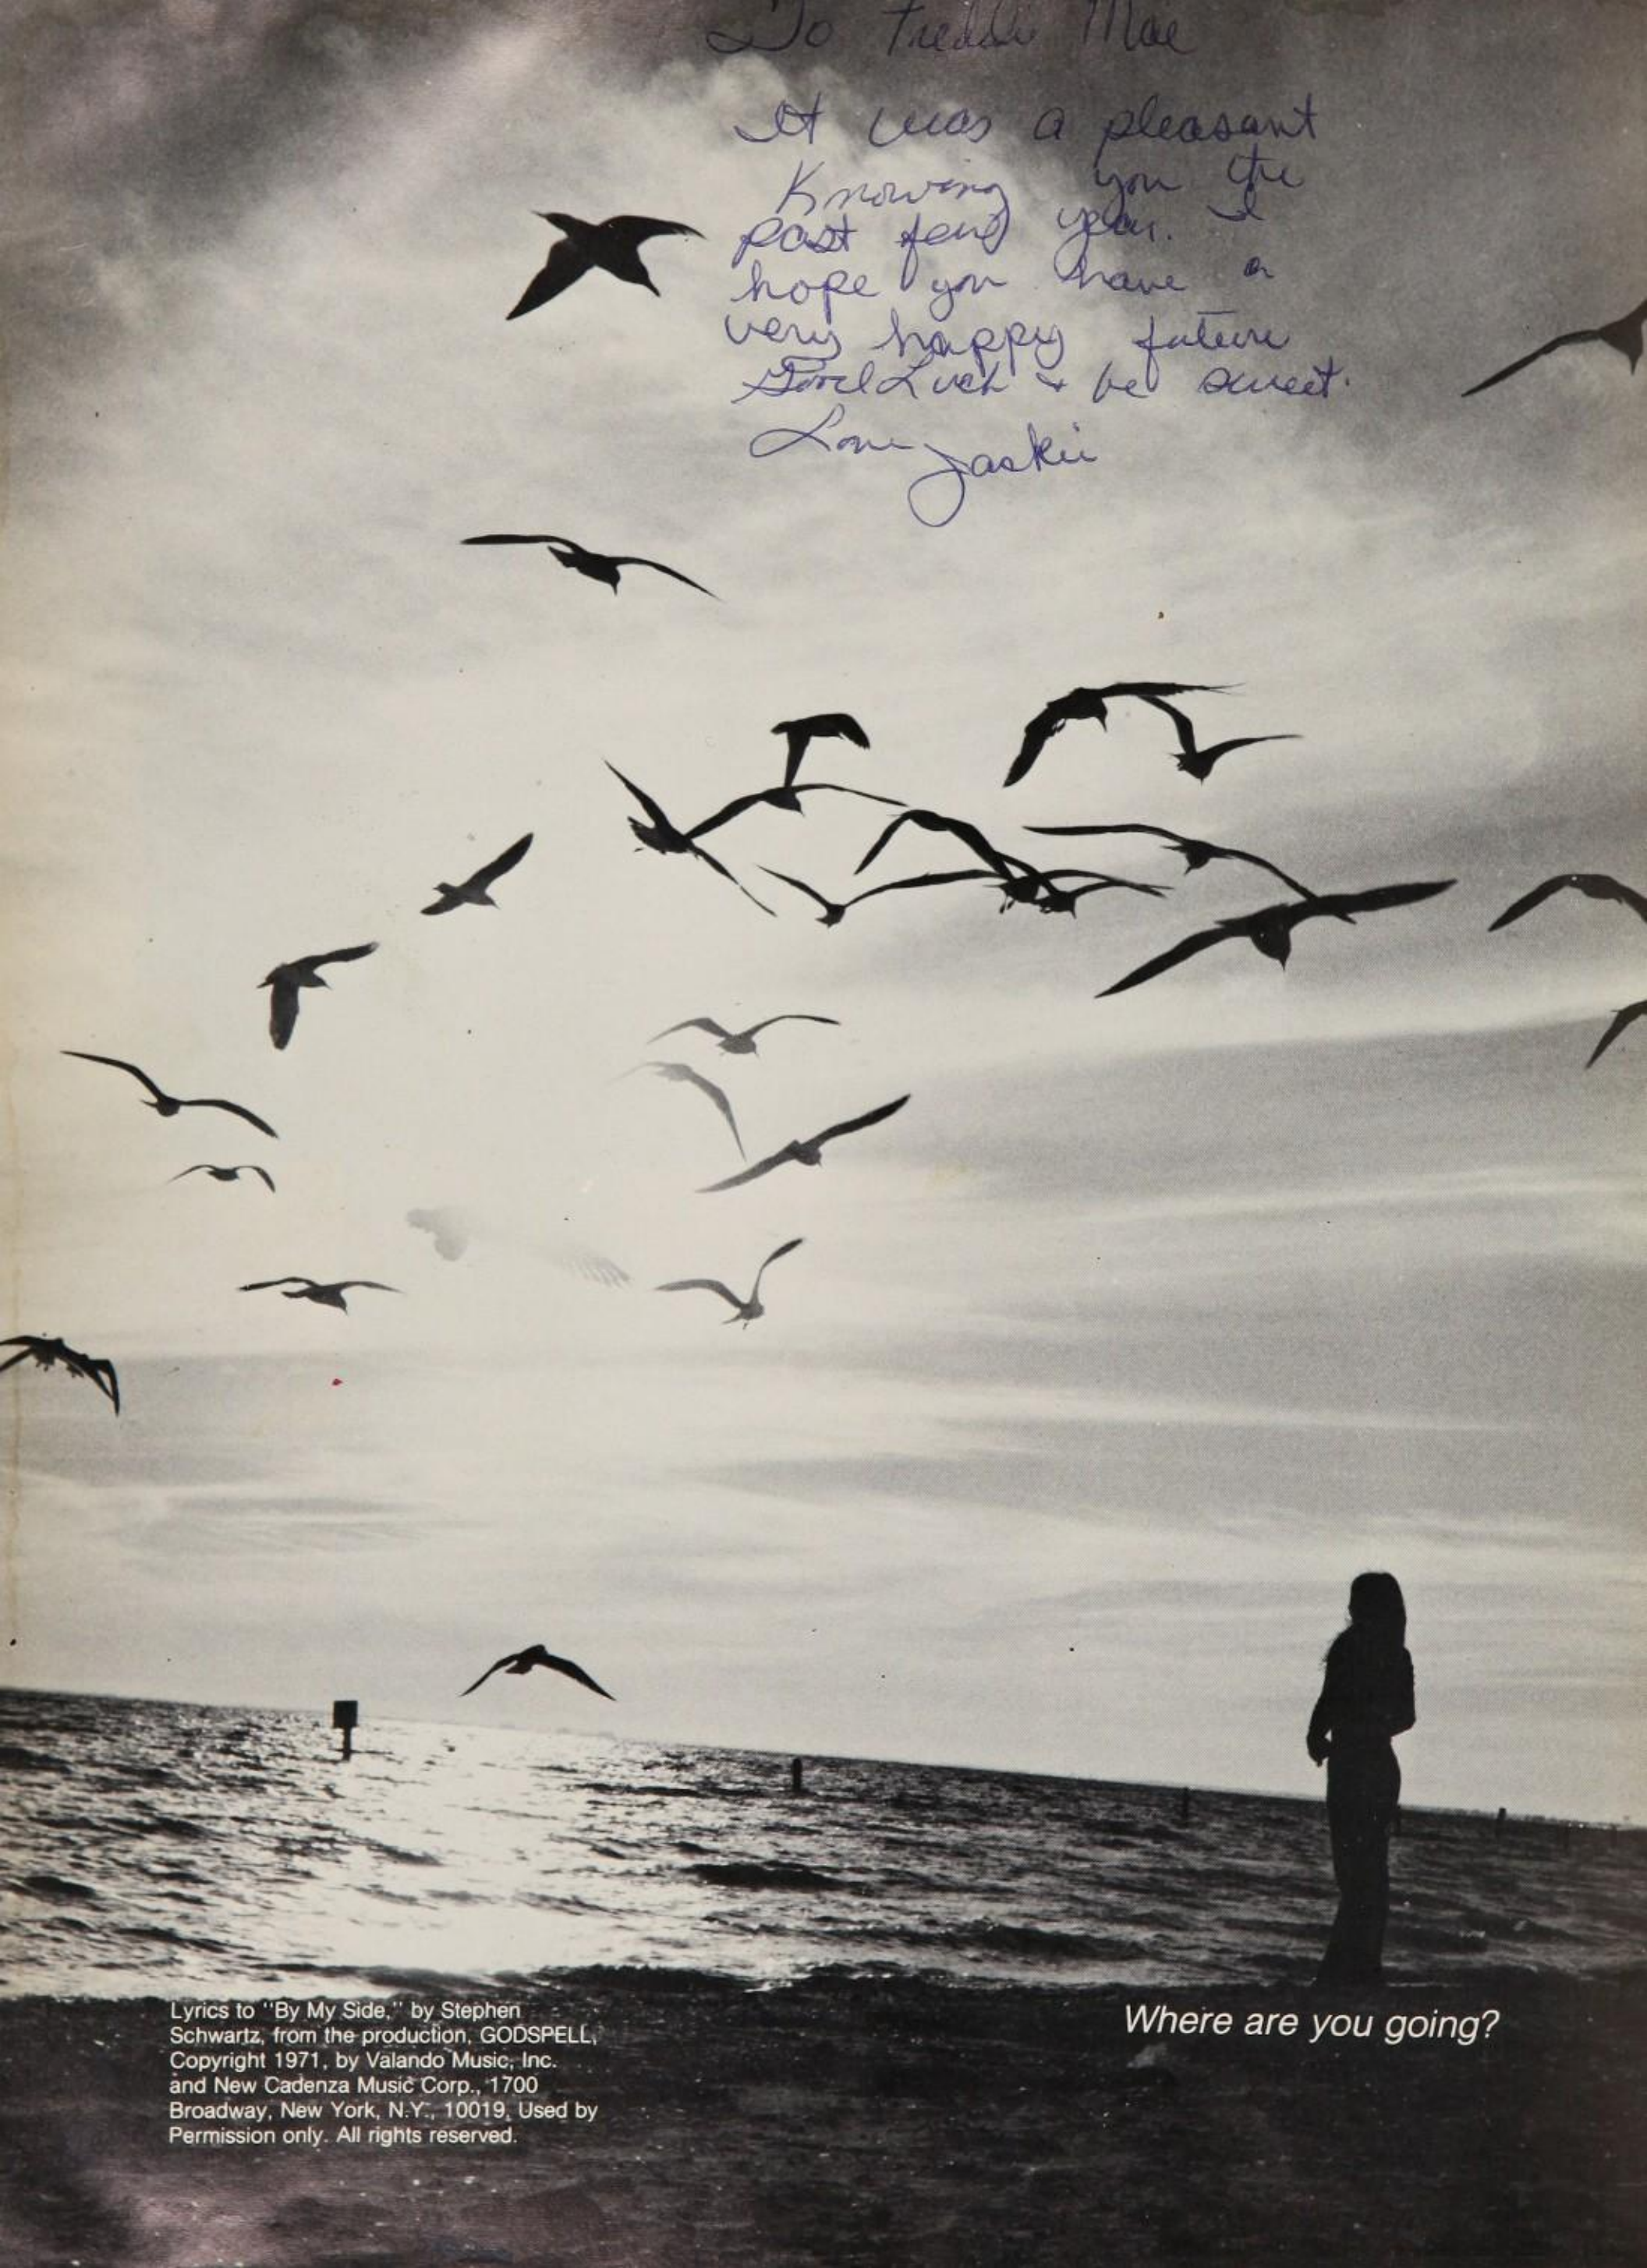

*But there were times
When we were shining.
Where have all those moments gone?
Now memories are all that's left us.
I'll gather mine,
And I'll be gone.*

To Freddie Mae

It was a pleasant
knowing you the past few years. I hope you have a
very happy future
Good Luck & be sweet.
Love Jackie

Where are you going?

Freddie
Wow, it's a strange homecoming
for the past 3 years but I guess it's ok. We haven't been able to talk very much but you're a good person and I hope and wish you much happiness and luck in the future. And with prayers, peace will with everybody. Take care

Love you

Freddie,
Well this year
finally up and it was really great
knowing you. Typing
was a drag, thank
for all the help.
You've got to be one of the nicest person I know. Take care and have a
great summer.
Love you
Jusie

Face life with a smile always

Dear Freddie
Even though I have only been in a few of your classes
I know you are very sweet.
Stay that way.

Miss
Rabbi's money

Freddie,
You've been a very sweet Library Assistant last year. Best of luck to a real sweet girl - stay just as you are.

Best wishes!
Mimi Vicki J. Lumb

Freddie,
It's been nice to know such a nice person as you, I wish you all of the happiness & success
the future has in store
Mae

Freddie,
 It was very nice having breakfast with you. Don't forget Dunkin' Donuts or McDonalds. Hope to see you soon.
 Good luck & love
 Connie

Freddie,
 It was nice knowing you. Hope you have a great holiday.
 Sandra Volkmann

Freddie,

I really love that name. You are really a sweet person and I have enjoyed having you sit behind you were always there when I needed to ask a question or two or three. Be happy and I hope everyone is good to you. If there not just tell me and I'll talk to them. Me the 99lbs. wearing smile at life and it will always smile back.

Love
 Jack

To Freddie,

A VERY NICE AND DEAR PERSON.

It's truly been a nice experience. Knowing you all these years, remember me at all times. Freddie always strive for the best that life has to offer.

to put it's short

Freddie,
 I'm very glad we had a chance to meet. I've had a lot fun being with you. Stay as sweet and nice as you are now.
 Love Anita Dean
